Hearing Due Today

U.S. Asks Curb On Racial Moves By Gov. Wallace

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The case of the federal government vs. Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace comes up today in U.S. District Court. There were indications that come what may, Wallace will go through with his plan to try to keep Negroes out of the white University of Alabama.

No one expected the fiery segregationist governor to be present for the legal proceedings. He said on a national television program Sunday that he would send counsel to present his defense of his stand-in-the-door policy against integration.

The Justice Department asked U.S. Dist. Judge Seybourn H. Lynne for an injunction barring Wallace from interfering with an earlier court order directing the university system to enroll two Negroes.

Repeating his vow to stand in the university doors to keep Negroes out, Wallace told interviewers on NBC television's "Meet the Press" that his defiance would "test in the courts the validity of this order involving our school system."

The issue, he said, is whether Albama may run its schools as it has or must submit to federal government operation of the schools.

He said repeatedly that violence would not be tolerated at the university, but said it remains to be seen whether federal troops will be needed to get two Negroes into the university system next week.

The governor said he has appealed to the citizens of Alabama to stay away from the campus.

"Absolute law will prevail," he said. "We will not tolerate mob action."

While Wallace talked, hundreds of white and Negro pickets marched outside. Many chanted "Wallace must go" and "Down with Wallace." The pickets, however, were outnumbered by policemen, who threw up massive security measures.

There were these major developments elsewhere:

—In Jackson, Miss., scene of mass arrests of pro-integration demonstrators last week, the Sabbath was quiet.

—Peaceful picketing continued at Tallahassee, Fla., where Negroes are seeking desegregation of two white movie theaters.

—At Gainesville, Fla., home of the University of Florida, scattered violence erupted Sunday night after eight Negro youths were turned away from two white theaters. Police said a Negro suffered a flesh wound in an arm when shot after he went to the aid of a white man pulled from a car and attacked by Negroes after a car stalled in the Negro section. City leaders called a meeting today to try to ease racial tension.

—After an eight-day truce, racial demonstrations resumed Sunday night in Greensboro, N.C. About 200 Negroes marched silently through the downtown streets.

—In Washington, 20 Republican congressmen accused the Kennedy administration of "footdragging" on civil rights and said they would take the floor of the House one by one today to urge support of GOP civil rights legislation.

A U.S. marshal succeeded only Sunday in serving Alabama's governor with a court summons concerning today's hearing. Wallace had eluded service for a week but

By RELMAN MORIN

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—Foster Auditorium, a shiny brick building with white facings on the University of Alabama campus, is the focal point today in a critical move toward peaceful desegregation in the South.

On June 10, one week from today, Vivian Malone, a Negro student, will be brought to the portals of the auditorium.

Waiting there to bar her from entering—so he has vowed—will be Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

But if a secret, carefully detail plan works with precision, Miss Malone will pass into the building and enroll as a student in the School of Commerce, the second of her race to be admitted to the university since it was founded in 1831.

What then?

"We are not going to have another Oxford," they tell you in Tuscaloosa—a reference to the riots that brought two deaths and many injuries at the University of Mississippi last September when James H. Meredith was enrolled.

"We are not going to permit another Autherine Lucy case," they say—a reference to the shattering violence of 1957 when Miss Malone's predecessor was briefly enrolled.

The atmosphere in Tuscaloosa today is wholly unprecedented in this correspondent's experience of similar racial situations.

Community and university leaders have gone to enormous lengths to prevent violence next Monday and in the succeeding days.

Elsewhere in Alabama newspaper editorials are hammering the same theme.

In Tuscaloosa, the equation has many factors.

The governor is one. Will he simply make a symbolic effort to block Miss Malone? Or does he have further plans?

Student sentiment at the university seems to be overwhelmingly prepared to accommodate to the enrollment of Miss Malone, officials said.

Community leaders express confidence that the situation will be kept under control next Monday.

If violence does break out, it will not be for lack of planning and effort to head it off.

Nomination Plans Eyed

Rockefeller Starts Test Of Marriage Acceptance

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller returns to public affairs today and begins a testing period that may chart his course in the 1964 GOP presidential nomination contest.

Rockefeller apparently intends to find out how New York voters are accepting his recent marriage to Margaretta Fitler Murphy, divorced mother of four, following his own divorce from his wife of 31 years.

In a heavy schedule of state appearances, the governor planned to take along his attractive new wife. Ahead may be out-of-state dates at party fund-raising dinners in such widely separated points as West Virginia, Utah and Michigan.

Today, the governor and his wife attend a dinner at Albany sponsored by the Citizens' Planning Committee. A major appearance is scheduled for Thursday, when the Rockefellers will attend the annual dinner of the State Republican Committee at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

What the remarriage has done to Rockefeller's previously excellent chances for the presidential nomination is a matter of prime political debate.

An Associated Press survey of the positions of the nation's 16 Republican governors indicated that Rockefeller remains a favorite. On the basis of the governors' statements and actions—and the

Pope John's Heart Weakens As World Sadly Waits Death

Doctors Say Agony Ends For Pontiff

Condition Declines As Church Leader Sinks Into Stupor

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII sank into deepening stupor today and his sturdy heart seemed to be weakening.

The pontiff's blood pressure dropped drastically, and sources at the Vatican said this could indicate weakening of the heart, whose resistance to death has confounded all medical expectations.

A medical bulletin at noon (6 a.m., EST) said the Pope no longer felt the agonizing pain that had scourged his body earlier. Sedatives and pain killers no longer were necessary. His temperature rose.

At 1:35 p.m., a communique reported that the Pope's blood pressure had dropped to 95. Five-and-a-half hours earlier it had been 115.

For the thousands in St. Peter's Square there was nothing to do but wait, as they had waited through long night and daytime vigils ever since the Pope's first grave crisis. About 10,000 were in the square at noon.

The 81-year-old pontiff survived another crisis Sunday night and yet another early today. Since Friday his doctors have said each day would probably be his last.

The first medical bulletin of the day reported that the Pope's pulse beat had eased from a high of 140 beats early this morning to a steady 130. His hold on life was attributed to the "perfect integrity" of his heart and circulatory system and his "exceptional robustness."

The bulletin, issued at 9 a.m.—3 a.m. EST—said:

"The perfect integrity of the cardio-circulatory system and the exceptional robustness of the Holy Father maintained his physique in condition of elevated resistance in which the worsening, although steady, is slow.

"In the past 12 hours there have frequently been periods of loss of consciousness and failure to react to stimulants.

"His body temperature continues to remain high. Administration of oxygen and the presence of adequate breathing has permitted the conservation of a sufficient oxygenation. His arterial pressure at 8 a.m. was 115 and his pulse had a beat of 130 with a steady rhythm."

Death almost came at sunset Pentecost Sunday when he suffered an alarming crisis. It brought a Vatican radio plea to the world for prayer. Again his heart pulled him through.

Parents Rap Boost In Pool Ticket Rates

Hancock Officials Receive Protests On Park's Charges

A delegation of parents from the Chester, New Cumberland and Pughtown areas appeared before Hancock County Commissioners this morning in the Courthouse in protest of what they termed "unfair" admission rates at Tomlinson Run State Park's outdoor swimming pool.

Petitions listing approximately 200 names of those objecting to the change in admission prices were presented to Commissioners William C. Graham, James Finley and Robert Roach.

Selling of season passes has been eliminated at Tomlinson Run in favor of a daily admission charge of 50 cents for those over 12 and 35 cents for those under 12.

Previously, youngsters could purchase passes which were good for admission on a monthly basis, with the cost $3.50 for those under 12, and $5 for older swimmers.

Under last year's plan, children under 5 were admitted free. However, this practice apparently has been abolished for the new season.

One of the parents objecting to the change in admission said Miss Callie Tsapis, member of the House of Delegates from the county, and other officials have been advised of the protest action.

Court Rules On Dues For Labor Unions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that the Taft-Hartley labor law does not ban agency shop agreements, under which non-union members must pay to unions the equivalent of fees and dues paid by members.

Justice White delivered the court's opinion in a case involving General Motors Corp. plants in Indiana where state courts have held that the agency shop is permissible under state law.

White said that whether a different result would be reached by the court in cases from states which have declared agency shop arrangements unlawful "is an issue still to be resolved."

The court's vote was 8-0. Justice Goldberg, the former labor secretary, disqualified himself from the case.

The case reaching the high court developed from demands by the United Auto Workers Union for an agency shop arrangement in GM plants.

U.N. Pushes Financing Of Peace Guard

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Prospects are good that the U.N. General Assembly will adopt resolutions to continue financing the world organization's peacekeeping operations. But no assembly action is expected to draw such funds from the Soviet bloc.

Secretary-General U Thant got a weekend progress report on the negotiations on the finance proposals from Chief S. O. Adebo of Nigeria, chairman of the assembly's 21-nation working group on finances.

Adebo would give no details of the talk. But other diplomats said the negotiators have drafted four resolutions—one to finance the Congo operation for the second half of 1963, another to finance the Middle East operation for the same period, a third to collect assessments owed for the two operations and a fourth to lay down general principles for financing future peacekeeping operations.

The resolutions, with wide sponsorship, probably will be submitted Wednesday or Thursday and come to a vote next week.

The resolutions call for part of the Congo and Middle East costs for the second half of the year to be raised according to the scale of assessments for the regular U budget and part according to a special scale affording reduced assessments to underveloped countries. The reduction would be made up by voluntary contributions from industrialized countries.

One draft resolution lays down the principle that expenses of peacekeeping operations are the collective responsibility of all U.N. members. Its adoption is expected to help get some of the back assessments owed the Congo account by about 65 nations and the Middle East account by about 55.

Ohio Court Receives Sunday Sales Appeal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Euclid drugstore operator appealed his Sunday closing law conviction to the Ohio Supreme Court today.

Max Bunin was charged with opening the Revco Discount Drug Center on Sunday, March 11, 1962. Police Capt. Orville Willcocks bought a bottle of hair tonic.

Standard Drug Co., operator of the store, said it was under control of a registered pharmacist.

Bunin was convicted in Municipal Court of violating the Sunday closing law.

Mahoning Coed Killed

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. (AP)—A Middlebury College coed from Youngstown, Ohio—Juliana Johnson 20—is dead as the result of an automobile accident late Saturday night on Vermont 7. Police said she was alone in her new car when it rolled over several times on a curve.

8 Arrested In Montreal Bomb Probe

Police Seize Large Store Of Dynamite; Blame Leftist Move

MONTREAL (AP)—Police seeking terrorist bombers of the Quebec Liberation Front have arrested eight men for questioning and seized a mass of dynamite, fuses and timing mechanisms. More arrests are expected.

Montreal Police Director J. Adrien Robert announced the arrests — first in the campaign against the front—at a news conference Sunday night.

He refused to give further details, but provincial police director Josaphat Brunet said a Belgian national was among those picked up.

Earlier reports said the Belgian, about 32, had been trained in Cuba to handle explosives and was the leader of the terrorist group. The Montreal Gazette said "police now have proof that the terrorist movement has been Communist-led."

For the past three months, the front has staged a wave of bombings in the Montreal area to focus attention on its campaign to separate predominantly French-speaking Quebec from Canada.

Store, Mine Entered In Elkrun Township

LISBON — The office of Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan today is investigating two burglaries in which equipment and food were taken at a mining pit and store in Elk Run Township.

Chief Deputy Robert Beresford said more than $800 in tools, oil, gasoline, and grease guns were stolen from the A. B. C. Coal Mining Co. pit off Route 954, south of Rogers. Machines used in the mining operation also were broken into, the deputy said.

The loot at the second burglary at McBurney's Lake Store, west of Rogers, included candy, pop, cakes, potato chips and fishing bobbers. Entry was gained by breaking a lock hasp on a door.

The burglaries happened either late Sunday night or early today, the sheriff's office said.

Light Showers Slated In District By Tonight

Light showers are expected in the area by tonight, the Ohio weatherman said.

The mercury will hit a high of 74-78 today and the overnight low will be 54-62, the forecaster said. Tuesday will be partly cloudy and a little warmer.

It will be mostly cloudy today and tonight, with light rains due by late afternoon or early tonight, the forecaster said.

Awards Scheduled

280 Will Receive Diplomas At Rite

Presentation of diplomas to 280 members of the Class of 1963, awarding of 12 scholarships, and an address by Dr. Perry Gresham, president of Bethany College, will feature the 89th annual commencement exercises of East Liverpool High School Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium.

The exercises will open with the graduates entering the auditorium as the Concert Band directed by Vincent L. Maola, band director and supervisor of instrumental music, plays the processional.

Following the invocation by the Rev. John L. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, William Krieger will sing "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Darrell H. Locke. Both are members of the class.

DR. GRESHAM will be introduced by George Hargraves, high school principal.

Supt. Paul H. Blair will make the awards presentations, including five Laura Vodrey Memorial scholarships, three Hi-Tri awards, including two college scholarships and one for nurse training, two $250 general awards from Lake Marwin, a scholarship for business college from the Business and Professional Women's club, and a $200 scholarship from the East Liverpool Progressive Council.

The diplomas will be awarded by James Lowe, president of the Board of Education, as the class is presented by Hargraves.

Ted Waters, Senior Class president, will lead the class in the Graduate's Creed and the class will sing "Alma Mater." Following the benediction by Rev. Clark, the Concert Band will play the recessional as the graduates leave the auditorium.

The graduates:

Graduates Hear Minister

Life's Milestones Listed At Rites For Senior Class

Four questions must be answered to their satisfaction before they become mature, one of life's milestones, 280 East Liverpool High School seniors were told Sunday night by the Rev. Harold Estel at the annual baccalaureate service in Memorial Auditorium.

The pastor of the Oakland Free Methodist Church, Rev. Estel used the theme, "Life's Milestones," with Proverbs 3:6 as his text: "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy path."

Graduation is a milestone of accomplishment, transition and planning and comes near the milestone of coming of age, the minister pointed out.

"Becoming of age is a reminder that the meaning of life is the achievement of maturity. This achievement is through the alignment of our lives with the intention of the author of life," Rev. Estel said.

"To become mature we must answer to our own satisfaction these questions:

"What is my real purpose in life? Is this in harmony with God's purpose for my life? Will this bring me to my desired goal? Am I acknowledging God in my plans?"

The Scripture was read by the Rev. James G. Douglas, pastor of the Sheridan African Metho-

LISBON — The office of Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan today is investigating two burglaries in which equipment and food were taken at a mining pit and store in Elk Run Township.

Chief Deputy Robert Beresford said more than $800 in tools, oil, gasoline, and grease guns were stolen from the A. B. C. Coal Mining Co. pit off Route 954, south of Rogers. Machines used in the mining operation also were broken into, the deputy said.

The loot at the second burglary at McBurney's Lake Store, west of Rogers, included candy, pop, cakes, potato chips and fishing bobbers. Entry was gained by breaking a lock hasp on a door.

The burglaries happened either late Sunday night or early today, the sheriff's office said.

Light Showers Slated In District By Tonight

Light showers are expected in the area by tonight, the Ohio weatherman said.

The mercury will hit a high of 74-78 today and the overnight low will be 54-62, the forecaster said. Tuesday will be partly cloudy and a little warmer.

It will be mostly cloudy today and tonight, with light rains due by late afternoon or early tonight, the forecaster said.

Awards Scheduled

280 Will Receive Diplomas At Rite

Presentation of diplomas to 280 members of the Class of 1963, awarding of 12 scholarships, and an address by Dr. Perry Gresham, president of Bethany College, will feature the 89th annual commencement exercises of East Liverpool High School Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium.

The exercises will open with the graduates entering the auditorium as the Concert Band directed by Vincent L. Maola, band director and supervisor of instrumental music, plays the processional.

Following the invocation by the Rev. John L. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, William Krieger will sing "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Darrell H. Locke. Both are members of the class.

DR. GRESHAM will be introduced by George Hargraves, high school principal.

Supt. Paul H. Blair will make the awards presentations, including five Laura Vodrey Memorial scholarships, three Hi-Tri awards, including two college scholarships and one for nurse training, two $250 general awards from Lake Marwin, a scholarship for business college from the Business and Professional Women's club, and a $200 scholarship from the East Liverpool Progressive Council.

The diplomas will be awarded by James Lowe, president of the Board of Education, as the class is presented by Hargraves.

Ted Waters, Senior Class president, will lead the class in the Graduate's Creed and the class will sing "Alma Mater." Following the benediction by Rev. Clark, the Concert Band will play the recessional as the graduates leave the auditorium.

The graduates:

Brenda Lane Adkins, Dennis Earl Adkins, Paul E. Adkins, Keith Manson Allison Jr., Jack Neal Alpern, George David Anderson, Peggy Lou Anderson, Virginia Rae Anderson, Adrianne Ann Applegate, Meredith Ann Applegate, Kenneth Gary Ashby.

Graduates Hear Minister

Life's Milestones Listed At Rites For Senior Class

Four questions must be answered to their satisfaction before they become mature, one of life's milestones, 280 East Liverpool High School seniors were told Sunday night by the Rev. Harold Estel at the annual baccalaureate service in Memorial Auditorium.

The pastor of the Oakland Free Methodist Church, Rev. Estel used the theme, "Life's Milestones," with Proverbs 3:6 as his text: "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy path."

Graduation is a milestone of accomplishment, transition and planning and comes near the milestone of coming of age, the minister pointed out.

"Becoming of age is a reminder that the meaning of life is the achievement of maturity. This achievement is through the alignment of our lives with the intention of the author of life," Rev. Estel said.

"To become mature we must answer to our own satisfaction these questions:

"What is my real purpose in life? Is this in harmony with God's purpose for my life? Will this bring me to my desired goal? Am I acknowledging God in my plans?"

The Scripture was read by the Rev. James G. Douglas, pastor of the Sheridan African Metho-

Plane Crash In India Kills 5 Americans

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—An Indian Airlines plane crashed today killing all 29 persons aboard, including a University of Illinois professor and his family.

Airline headquarters here said the plane, a DC3 Dakota, crashed and burned on a flight from Amritsar on the north Indian plains to Srinigar, capital of the Himalayan state of Kashmir.

The U.S. Embassy in New Delhi said passports found in the wreckage as well as the passenger list identified five of the passengers as the family of Associate Prof. James Clarence Laverty of Champaign, Ill.

Toll Rises To 22,000

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP)—At least 22,000 persons perished in last week's cyclone in East Pakistan, according to incomplete unofficial figures.

Vacations go smoother in a Chevrolet Corvair

Bring on those mountains! They're not so high and mighty any more when you've got Corvair's gutty six and rear-engine traction working on them.

You scurry up the meanest grades. You move with sure-footed agility on wet pavement, muddy lanes, gravel and other would-be miseries.

And with most of Corvair's weight bearing down on the rear wheels, you have an easy time steering, too. Fact is, the handling's so light we don't even offer power steering for the car.

And there's more to feel good about. No problems with your radiator boiling over or going dry, because there's no radiator. Corvair's engine is air cooled. No concern about brake adjustments, either, because the brakes adjust themselves. Nothing much to think about at all except the good time you're having (and maybe the next mountain you're going to flatten).

Like to do that in a sporty bucket-seated Monza Club Coupe or Convertible? Like to spring into summer with a 4-speed stick shift* and Spyder package* with its 150-hp Turbocharged engine, special instrumentation and insignia? Your dealer's got just the Corvair and the Trade 'N' Travel deal on it to put you in a holiday mood.

dist Episcopal Church, with the prayer being offered by John N. Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ.

The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Russell Mase of the Emmanuel United Presbyterian Church.

The Concert Choir directed by Miss Arletta Helfrich, supervisor of vocal music, sang two anthems and the choral response.

Attired in caps and gowns, the graduates entered and left the auditorium as the Concert Band directed by Vincent L. Maola, supervisor of instrumental music, played the processional and recessional.

Vacations go smoother in a Chevrolet Corvair

Bring on those mountains! They're not so high and mighty any more when you've got Corvair's gutty six and rear-engine traction working on them.

You scurry up the meanest grades. You move with sure-footed agility on wet pavement, muddy lanes, gravel and other would-be miseries.

And with most of Corvair's weight bearing down on the rear wheels, you have an easy time steering, too. Fact is, the handling's so light we don't even offer power steering for the car.

And there's more to feel good about. No problems with your radiator boiling over or going dry, because there's no radiator. Corvair's engine is air cooled. No concern about brake adjustments, either, because the brakes adjust themselves. Nothing much to think about at all except the good time you're having (and maybe the next mountain you're going to flatten).

Like to do that in a sporty bucket-seated Monza Club Coupe or Convertible? Like to spring into summer with a 4-speed stick shift* and Spyder package* with its 150-hp Turbocharged engine, special instrumentation and insignia? Your dealer's got just the Corvair and the Trade 'N' Travel deal on it to put you in a holiday mood.

Pride In Negro Progress

If incidents of friction between Negroes and whites multiplied in Northern areas, to the extent that race tension ceased to be associated with Southern communities contemptuous of civil rights, the problem would be different than it is now.

Now it is principally a matter of giving Negroes in Southern states rights that have been withheld in direct violation of the Constitution—the right to vote and the right to participate fully in such public projects as schools.

It has been the hope of Northern critics of repressive Southern practices that Negroes should enjoy the same civil rights everywhere that they possess in the most favorable environments in the North.

This has been the mainspring of Northern interest in the civil rights fight—this belief that the Southern Negro must be brought up to the level which the Northern Negro now occupies as a matter of course.

THERE HAS BEEN no smugness in this. It is known and acknowledged that the Northern Negro's condition is far from perfect. But in civil rights, he has been enjoying what his Southern brother still is trying to achieve.

The controlling thought in Northern minds during the difficult days since the U.S. Supreme Court belatedly put the 14th amendment into full effect with its ruling on school integration has been to give Negroes in all states of the Union the same civil rights.

It is acknowledged with no argument that Northern Negroes are still fighting for economic and social rights; that their progress in these respects has been spotty.

It is granted without dispute that Northern Negroes are still made conscious of discrimination by practices that frustrate and embitter them.

But if these things are to be the provocation for demonstrations, in the same sense as voting rights in the South provoke demonstrations, the problem of how to bring leverage to bear on recalcitrant Southern whites will become more difficult.

IT IS ONE thing to believe the right to vote and enjoy equal benefits is guaranteed to all citizens, regardless, or race, creed, or color, under the Constitution.

It would be another thing to try to solve simultaneously all the problems of economic opportunity, housing and status.

All who take pride in Negro progress and hold high hopes for its continuation are aware of the danger of trying to do too many things at once.

The present priority is civil rights in the South. Simultaneously, there will continue to be progress in other directions in the North, where voting rights long since have been guaranteed and school integration is virtually an established practice.

To Students Who Capitalized

There is a sense of inadequacy in the leavetaking of high school graduates. A commencement speaker imparts wisdom to them. Their teachers wish them well, having shared with them all the knowledge and experience of their more mature lives.

Their parents point up the importance of graduation.

Their friends rise to the occasion.

But there is an omission — an empty place in the ceremony of leavetaking.

They do not hear from the people who paid for their education.

Except for the symbolic presence of the school board, the public is not represented. It should be.

THE PUBLIC thinks of money spent for education as an investment. It hopes the beneficiaries of the investment will have the intelligence and initiative to capitalize on what has been done in their behalf.

The proposition is sound when it works. It is a bad deal when pupils waste the people's money by acting as if they resented the chance to improve their lot in life.

Nowhere else on earth has public education been attempted on the scale practiced in the United States. Elsewhere, education is a privilege, not a compulsion. Only the brightest students are permitted to go to school. All others are shunted into activities that require no education.

HERE, every child has a chance to be educated, if he has the ambition and the intelligence to take advantage of what is available for the taking.

Nothing is more gratifying than the performances of pupils who take full advantage of free public education.

Nothing is sadder or more disheartening than the failures of pupils who make a point of refusing to let themselves be educated.

While congratulating all the graduates who improved themselves to the limit, taxpayers who put up the money have a right to express disappointment with the rest, who didn't know a good thing when they saw it.

They will regret all their lives what they missed by fighting education instead of accepting it as America's golden gift to its children.

Savannah—A Horrible Example

Remember the nuclear-powered surface vessel, Savannah, which taxpayers of the United States built at a cost of $80 million?

The idea was to show the world the peaceful possibilities of nuclear power. The Savannah was a prototype of the merchant ships of the future. It was to have been sailed into all the major ports, as a demonstration of U.S. know-how.

The Savannah is sailing nowhere. It has been laid up indefinitely. Its 29 engineers, all trained at taxpayer expense and receiving pay ranging from $14,000 to $22,000, went on strike over a wage issue. When the strike bogged down, they quit.

IT WILL TAKE a long time to train a new complement of engineers. The Savannah, which was to have been handled by a private firm to avoid giving the impression it was connected in any way with naval armament, will lie at anchor until—if—a crew can be put together.

This is a horrible example of something that has gone sour in America. Time after time, the main purpose is defeated because squabbles develop over subordinate problems.

Test Looming For Rhodes

By William S. Vance

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Gov. James A. Rhodes has shed his cloak of official silence on pending legislation in a bill-backing move that could become the first open test of his influence on the legislature.

He has thrown his personal support behind a bitterly opposed bill to transfer control of the Ohio Tuberculosis Hospital from the Department of Health to Ohio State University.

The bill had been pegged as a sure loser because of stern opposition from the Ohio Tuberculosis and Health Association and active home-front war parties organized by local associations and the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. William Deddens, R-Cincinnati, was scheduled for a vote Wednesday in the Senate.

Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Nelsonville, knew the bill was in trouble. In a party caucus Tuesday, he found out just how deeply in trouble it was when only 8 of the 19 Republicans were willing to support it.

At the same time, Democrats emerged from a caucus united in their opposition to the measure.

Mechem asked Rhodes for a statement of his views. In a "Dear Stan" letter made public Wednesday morning, the governor left no doubt that he wants the bill.

But as of Wednesday that wasn't enough. Mechem reportedly has been able to round up only five more Republican votes. That makes a total of 13. The bill needs 17 to pass.

So, at the last minute, Mechem knocked the bill off Wednesday's calendar and put it back in the Rules Committee.

The heat is on for the four votes still needed. But TB and Health Association sources say four GOP senators have committed themselves to oppose the bill.

That means that unless a Republican melts under the heat or a Democrat jumps the traces, the bill is stopped in its tracks.

The Ohio TB Hospital adjoins University Hospital on the OSU campus. Proponents of the bill say it is logical to put them under the same control.

Opponents have many objections, but they're worried primarily by the fact that Ohio TB Hospital is the only one in the state with facilities for recalcitrant patients. The bill, they argue, contains no guarantee that any beds will be available for tuberculosis patients.

In his letter to Mechem, Rhodes said care of recalcitrant patients would be shifted to the TB hospital at Nelsonville after OSU takes over the Columbus facility.

But TB and Health Association officials insist that the Nelsonville hospital is inadequate and they reject Rhodes' argument that facilities for care of recalcitrant patients "can be prepared at modest cost."

Aside from the furor over the bill, interest is heightened by the governor's public stand.

Since he took office nearly five months ago, Rhodes has been something less than lucid about pending legislation, except for those bills which bear the administration's label.

Unlike his predecessor, Michael V. DiSalle, Rhodes has refrained from sending executive messages to the legislature to detail his views on various bills. DiSalle's messages were frequent and voluminous and he was criticized often for trying to apply a heavy hand to the lawmakers.

Rhodes has preferred to work quietly in the background, delegating to cabinet members and administrative aides the duty of getting his message across to the legislature. On policy matters, he makes his views known in private conferences with Mechem and House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan.

Newsmen who ask Rhodes to comment on a particular bill generally get one of two replies: "I have no opinion" or "This office doesn't intend to prejudge any legislation."

The fact is that Rhodes hasn't had to exert much executive pressure on the heavily Republican assembly. Cooperation has been the keynote and the legislature has been giving him pretty much what he's asked for without bickering.

And because of that, Rhodes may set a modern-day record of vetoing no legislation.

A newsman scouting through the records learned that executive vetoes have been exercised in every session of the Ohio General Assembly for at least 60 years.

The previous low during that time was during the administration of Andrew L. Harris, who vetoed only one bill in 1907. In 1925, Gov. Vic Donahey vetoed a record 74 bills.

DiSalle vetoed 22 bills in 1959 and 23 in 1961.

Magic Of Oil

The magic of oil has transformed Kuwait from an obscure desert sheikdom into a modern state. The transition was completed recently when Kuwait became a member of the United Nations.

Stretching about 90 miles along the head of the Persian Gulf, Kuwait is sandwiched between Iraq and Saudi Arabia. Most of the country is scorched desert, flat except for a few low hills and ridges.

Kuwait was founded early in the 18th century by ancestors of the present ruling family who were driven to the Gulf by drought in Central Asia. The old Ottoman Empire's borders put Kuwait inside the Iraqui province of Basra. In 1899, Kuwait was made a separate entity under British protection. It became independent in 1961.

Kuwait was a provincial Arab center whose chief interests were pearl diving, fishing, boat building and trading until 1938, when oil was discovered. World War II held up exploitation and production did not begin in earnest until 1946.

Though Kuwait covers only 6,000 square miles, it is the world's fourth-largest oil producer. Some 600 million barrels a year flow from Kuwaiti wells. Reserves are estimated at 60 billion barrels.

Oil income streams into the hands of Sheik Abdullah as Salim as Subah at the rate of $1,250,000 a day. He spends it to develop his country.

Pope Sought Unity

By James Marlow

John XXIII Utilized Medicine Of Mercy

WASHINGTON

Pope John XXIII said he preferred the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity, and he used it to minister to the ills of the world.

He had been ruler of the Roman Catholic Church for less than five years when death neared. That wasn't long enough to bring about a recovery to the world's troubles. He hardly had time to do more than write out a few prescriptions in his eight encyclicals and his Ecumenical Council.

Yet, it is doubtful any Pope in more than a century gave such a sense of vitality to the Catholic church or created so much good will among the non-Catholics of the world, both those with a belief in God and those without any.

As he lay dying—he said he was prepared and had his bags packed —Catholics, Protestants, non-Christians and atheistic Communists alike regretted it.

He had tried to open the door to unity—at least unity in the sense of better understanding—between the Catholic and non-Catholic worlds. Real unity is still a dream. Disunity was too deep for a quick solution.

John, out of a peasant family in Italy, was a pastoral Pope, warm and humble, extremely contemporary, and optimistic. He went to work at once.

Pope Leo XIII, on the night the cardinals elected him in 1878, immediately sat down and wrote Chancellor Bismarck in Germany where Catholics suffered under repressive legislation. This opened negotiations and in a few years Bismarck lifted the legislation.

John, within a day after his election Nov. 4, 1958, went on the radio to plead for peace.

He began efforts toward some form of working arrangement between the Vatican and Communist governments—in the interest of peace and of Catholics behind the Iron Curtain—and his efforts seemed well received in Russia.

In almost no time he did what no other Pope had done in almost 100 years: he called an Ecumenical Council, a meeting of the cardinals, bishops, and leaders of the church. More than 2,500 went to Rome to take part in the first session.

It was different from other such councils. Protestants and representatives of the Greek and Russian Orthodox churches were invited as observers. More than 40 Protestants and two delegates from the Russian church went.

The council lasted from Oct. 11 to Dec. 8, 1962 and then recessed until next Sept. 8. It's possible John's successor will postpone the next session but very unlikely he will cancel it.

The council has several purposes, among them some church reforms, like letting priests say parts of the Mass and administer the sacraments in their own tongues instead of all in Latin, and beginning closer relations with the Protestant world.

What John did, since any hope of unity he had could hardly be achieved in his lifetime or perhaps in several lifetimes, was to open access on a new road for Popes coming after him.

Encyclicals are circular letters to Catholics. But even here John broke new ground. His two most famous encyclicals were Mater et Magistra (Mother and Teacher) and Pacem in Terris (Peace on Earth).

He addressed the latter not only to Catholics but "to all men of good will." So far as this writer can learn this was unprecedented in Church history. He delivered Pacem in Terris last April 11.

He called for peace, disarmament, an end to nuclear weapons, and a worldwide organization with power enough to assure peace and the general welfare. In addition he asked for a broad social program—really a cradle-to-the-grave program—to be sure the needs of no one are neglected.

He had laid down this social program in more detail in Mater et Magistra in which his concern for people earning their daily bread was a reaffirmation of similar concern expressed in the encyclicals of his predecessors in this past century, especially Leo XIII, who died in 1903, and Pius XI, who died in 1939.

All three Popes favored labor unions. Leo and Pius condemned doctrinaire socialism. John acknowledged that changing times and needs have made it necessary for governments, on behalf of the general welfare, to do many things which once were supposed to be the private domain of free enterprise.

But John, like Pius XI, warned against interference by any state with the legitimate freedoms of individuals and voluntary groups.

But, where Leo and Pius were outspoken in their denunciation of communism and socialism, John in Pacem in Terris never mentioned communism by name although making it clear he opposed its doctrine.

He seemed to indicate that while Communist doctrine won't change, its practice may, and that while it would be impossible to accept the doctrine it might be possible to deal cautiously with the practice.

Moscow praised the encyclical but printed only the parts which suited it.

New Cancer Sleuth

By Joseph R. Hixon

Today doctors take your temperature when you are sick. Tomorrow, they'll be recording heat levels all over your body while you're still presumably well. The goal is earlier detection of disease, especially cancer.

The first such heat-graphing device—adapted from compact military models used to spot the flame of missile launchings from orbiting satellites — is already functioning in tests on patients at Philadelphia's Albert Einstein Medical Center.

The instrument is the size of a table-model television set, is simple to operate, and injects nothing at or into the person being tested.

Dr. Jacob Gershon-Cohen, chief of radiology at the Einstein Center, described the thermograph and predicted important diagnostic uses for it.

THE PHYSICIAN was in New York to report on prevention of breast cancer with X-rays at the annual meeting of the State Medical Society. He said thermograph screening of the breast for hot spots that indicate tumors may well become routine in physical checkups for women over 35.

Why should cancer show up as a hot spot in the body?

Dr. Gershon-Cohen explained that the frantically multiplying cells of the cancer pour out excess heat as a by-product of their high energy production. Of course this excess heat makes a difference of only a fraction of a Fahrenheit degree. But detection of such differences is no more difficult than spotting the heat radiation of a military truck on a Cuban road from an airplane five miles above the island, as was done last October.

Though many laboratories are now engaged in making the detection of infra-red (heat) radiation even more sensitive, the credit for pioneering work in this field must go to Dr. R. Bowling Barnes of Stamford, Conn.

Dr. Barnes is now designing a portable, transistorized thermograph. With the present model, the radiologist positions the patient on the table. A long mirror reflects the heat waves to the instrument. The entire process takes eight minutes.

Dr. Gershon-Cohen said that the device recently spotted an appendicitis 12 hours before any change in blood count could be seen. He predicted that the thermograph could also provide a much less expensive way of diagnosing brain tumors, but noted that hair interferes with the heat radiation from the skull and must be shaved off before the test.

However, the Philadelphia radiologist was most enthusiastic about use of the device for detection of breast cancer, especially when coupled with X-ray techniques (mammography) now in use at more than 100 medical centers in the United States.

The breast cancer problem is primarily one of early diagnosis. The American Cancer Society reports that cancer of the breast is the most dangerous form of the disease for women, kills 25,000 each year.

THE REASON it kills so many is that it is detected so late. The Cancer Society finds that malignant breast tumors have already sent colonies of cancerous cells to other parts of the body in 57 per cent of women by the time the disease is diagnosed.

Presently, cancer detection emphasizes frequent examination by women themselves, then medical examination if any unusual lump is felt.

Says Dr. Gerson-Cohen, "We recently questioned 100 women under treatment for breast cancer. Their charts indicated they reported a lump within an average 3½ weeks of detecting it. That's what they told the examining doctor. But when we pressed them, we found they had waited an average of seven months to report these lumps."

Pride In Negro Progress

If incidents of friction between Negroes and whites multiplied in Northern areas, to the extent that race tension ceased to be associated with Southern communities contemptuous of civil rights, the problem would be different than it is now.

Now it is principally a matter of giving Negroes in Southern states rights that have been withheld in direct violation of the Constitution—the right to vote and the right to participate fully in such public projects as schools.

It has been the hope of Northern critics of repressive Southern practices that Negroes should enjoy the same civil rights everywhere that they possess in the most favorable environments in the North.

This has been the mainspring of Northern interest in the civil rights fight—this belief that the Southern Negro must be brought up to the level which the Northern Negro now occupies as a matter of course.

THERE HAS BEEN no smugness in this. It is known and acknowledged that the Northern Negro's condition is far from perfect. But in civil rights, he has been enjoying what his Southern brother still is trying to achieve.

The controlling thought in Northern minds during the difficult days since the U.S. Supreme Court belatedly put the 14th amendment into full effect with its ruling on school integration has been to give Negroes in all states of the Union the same civil rights.

It is acknowledged with no argument that Northern Negroes are still fighting for economic and social rights; that their progress in these respects has been spotty.

It is granted without dispute that Northern Negroes are still made conscious of discrimination by practices that frustrate and embitter them.

But if these things are to be the provocation for demonstrations, in the same sense as voting rights in the South provoke demonstrations, the problem of how to bring leverage to bear on recalcitrant Southern whites will become more difficult.

IT IS ONE thing to believe the right to vote and enjoy equal benefits is guaranteed to all citizens, regardless, or race, creed, or color, under the Constitution.

It would be another thing to try to solve simultaneously all the problems of economic opportunity, housing and status.

All who take pride in Negro progress and hold high hopes for its continuation are aware of the danger of trying to do too many things at once.

The present priority is civil rights in the South. Simultaneously, there will continue to be progress in other directions in the North, where voting rights long since have been guaranteed and school integration is virtually an established practice.

To Students Who Capitalized

There is a sense of inadequacy in the leavetaking of high school graduates. A commencement speaker imparts wisdom to them. Their teachers wish them well, having shared with them all the knowledge and experience of their more mature lives.

Their parents point up the importance of graduation.

Their friends rise to the occasion.

But there is an omission — an empty place in the ceremony of leavetaking.

They do not hear from the people who paid for their education.

Except for the symbolic presence of the school board, the public is not represented. It should be.

THE PUBLIC thinks of money spent for education as an investment. It hopes the beneficiaries of the investment will have the intelligence and initiative to capitalize on what has been done in their behalf.

The proposition is sound when it works. It is a bad deal when pupils waste the people's money by acting as if they resented the chance to improve their lot in life.

Nowhere else on earth has public education been attempted on the scale practiced in the United States. Elsewhere, education is a privilege, not a compulsion. Only the brightest students are permitted to go to school. All others are shunted into activities that require no education.

HERE, every child has a chance to be educated, if he has the ambition and the intelligence to take advantage of what is available for the taking.

Nothing is more gratifying than the performances of pupils who take full advantage of free public education.

Nothing is sadder or more disheartening than the failures of pupils who make a point of refusing to let themselves be educated.

While congratulating all the graduates who improved themselves to the limit, taxpayers who put up the money have a right to express disappointment with the rest, who didn't know a good thing when they saw it.

They will regret all their lives what they missed by fighting education instead of accepting it as America's golden gift to its children.

Savannah—A Horrible Example

Remember the nuclear-powered surface vessel, Savannah, which taxpayers of the United States built at a cost of $80 million?

The idea was to show the world the peaceful possibilities of nuclear power. The Savannah was a prototype of the merchant ships of the future. It was to have been sailed into all the major ports, as a demonstration of U.S. know-how.

The Savannah is sailing nowhere. It has been laid up indefinitely. Its 29 engineers, all trained at taxpayer expense and receiving pay ranging from $14,000 to $22,000, went on strike over a wage issue. When the strike bogged down, they quit.

Kuwait was founded early in the 18th century by ancestors of the present ruling family who were driven to the Gulf by drought in Central Asia. The old Ottoman Empire's borders put Kuwait inside the Iraqui province of Basra. In 1899, Kuwait was made a separate entity under British protection. It became independent in 1961.

Kuwait was a provincial Arab center whose chief interests were pearl diving, fishing, boat building and trading until 1938, when oil was discovered. World War II held up exploitation and production did not begin in earnest until 1946.

Though Kuwait covers only 6,000 square miles, it is the world's fourth-largest oil producer. Some 600 million barrels a year flow from Kuwaiti wells. Reserves are estimated at 60 billion barrels.

Oil income streams into the hands of Sheik Abdullah as Salim as Subah at the rate of $1,250,000 a day. He spends it to develop his country.

Pope Sought Unity

By James Marlow

John XXIII Utilized Medicine Of Mercy

WASHINGTON

Pope John XXIII said he preferred the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity, and he used it to minister to the ills of the world.

He had been ruler of the Roman Catholic Church for less than five years when death neared. That wasn't long enough to bring about a recovery to the world's troubles. He hardly had time to do more than write out a few prescriptions in his eight encyclicals and his Ecumenical Council.

Yet, it is doubtful any Pope in more than a century gave such a sense of vitality to the Catholic church or created so much good will among the non-Catholics of the world, both those with a belief in God and those without any.

As he lay dying—he said he was prepared and had his bags packed —Catholics, Protestants, non-Christians and atheistic Communists alike regretted it.

He had tried to open the door to unity—at least unity in the sense of better understanding—between the Catholic and non-Catholic worlds. Real unity is still a dream. Disunity was too deep for a quick solution.

John, out of a peasant family in Italy, was a pastoral Pope, warm and humble, extremely contemporary, and optimistic. He went to work at once.

Pope Leo XIII, on the night the cardinals elected him in 1878, immediately sat down and wrote Chancellor Bismarck in Germany where Catholics suffered under repressive legislation. This opened negotiations and in a few years Bismarck lifted the legislation.

John, within a day after his election Nov. 4, 1958, went on the radio to plead for peace.

He began efforts toward some form of working arrangement between the Vatican and Communist governments—in the interest of peace and of Catholics behind the Iron Curtain—and his efforts seemed well received in Russia.

In almost no time he did what no other Pope had done in almost 100 years: he called an Ecumenical Council, a meeting of the cardinals, bishops, and leaders of the church. More than 2,500 went to Rome to take part in the first session.

It was different from other such councils. Protestants and representatives of the Greek and Russian Orthodox churches were invited as observers. More than 40 Protestants and two delegates from the Russian church went.

The council lasted from Oct. 11 to Dec. 8, 1962 and then recessed until next Sept. 8. It's possible John's successor will postpone the next session but very unlikely he will cancel it.

The council has several purposes, among them some church reforms, like letting priests say parts of the Mass and administer the sacraments in their own tongues instead of all in Latin, and beginning closer relations with the Protestant world.

What John did, since any hope of unity he had could hardly be achieved in his lifetime or perhaps in several lifetimes, was to open access on a new road for Popes coming after him.

Encyclicals are circular letters to Catholics. But even here John broke new ground. His two most famous encyclicals were Mater et Magistra (Mother and Teacher) and Pacem in Terris (Peace on Earth).

He addressed the latter not only to Catholics but "to all men of good will." So far as this writer can learn this was unprecedented in Church history. He delivered Pacem in Terris last April 11.

He called for peace, disarmament, an end to nuclear weapons, and a worldwide organization with power enough to assure peace and the general welfare. In addition he asked for a broad social program—really a cradle-to-the-grave program—to be sure the needs of no one are neglected.

He had laid down this social program in more detail in Mater et Magistra in which his concern for people earning their daily bread was a reaffirmation of similar concern expressed in the encyclicals of his predecessors in this past century, especially Leo XIII, who died in 1903, and Pius XI, who died in 1939.

All three Popes favored labor unions. Leo and Pius condemned doctrinaire socialism. John acknowledged that changing times and needs have made it necessary for governments, on behalf of the general welfare, to do many things which once were supposed to be the private domain of free enterprise.

But John, like Pius XI, warned against interference by any state with the legitimate freedoms of individuals and voluntary groups.

But, where Leo and Pius were outspoken in their denunciation of communism and socialism, John in Pacem in Terris never mentioned communism by name although making it clear he opposed its doctrine.

He seemed to indicate that while Communist doctrine won't change, its practice may, and that while it would be impossible to accept the doctrine it might be possible to deal cautiously with the practice.

Moscow praised the encyclical but printed only the parts which suited it.

New Cancer Sleuth

By Joseph R. Hixon

Today doctors take your temperature when you are sick. Tomorrow, they'll be recording heat levels all over your body while you're still presumably well. The goal is earlier detection of disease, especially cancer.

The first such heat-graphing device—adapted from compact military models used to spot the flame of missile launchings from orbiting satellites — is already functioning in tests on patients at Philadelphia's Albert Einstein Medical Center.

The instrument is the size of a table-model television set, is simple to operate, and injects nothing at or into the person being tested.

Dr. Jacob Gershon-Cohen, chief of radiology at the Einstein Center, described the thermograph and predicted important diagnostic uses for it.

THE PHYSICIAN was in New York to report on prevention of breast cancer with X-rays at the annual meeting of the State Medical Society. He said thermograph screening of the breast for hot spots that indicate tumors may well become routine in physical checkups for women over 35.

Why should cancer show up as a hot spot in the body?

Dr. Gershon-Cohen explained that the frantically multiplying cells of the cancer pour out excess heat as a by-product of their high energy production. Of course this excess heat makes a difference of only a fraction of a Fahrenheit degree. But detection of such differences is no more difficult than spotting the heat radiation of a military truck on a Cuban road from an airplane five miles above the island, as was done last October.

Though many laboratories are now engaged in making the detection of infra-red (heat) radiation even more sensitive, the credit for pioneering work in this field must go to Dr. R. Bowling Barnes of Stamford, Conn.

Dr. Barnes is now designing a portable, transistorized thermograph. With the present model, the radiologist positions the patient on the table. A long mirror reflects the heat waves to the instrument. The entire process takes eight minutes.

Dr. Gershon-Cohen said that the device recently spotted an appendicitis 12 hours before any change in blood count could be seen. He predicted that the thermograph could also provide a much less expensive way of diagnosing brain tumors, but noted that hair interferes with the heat radiation from the skull and must be shaved off before the test.

However, the Philadelphia radiologist was most enthusiastic about use of the device for detection of breast cancer, especially when coupled with X-ray techniques (mammography) now in use at more than 100 medical centers in the United States.

The breast cancer problem is primarily one of early diagnosis. The American Cancer Society reports that cancer of the breast is the most dangerous form of the disease for women, kills 25,000 each year.

THE REASON it kills so many is that it is detected so late. The Cancer Society finds that malignant breast tumors have already sent colonies of cancerous cells to other parts of the body in 57 per cent of women by the time the disease is diagnosed.

Presently, cancer detection emphasizes frequent examination by women themselves, then medical examination if any unusual lump is felt.

Says Dr. Gerson-Cohen, "We recently questioned 100 women under treatment for breast cancer. Their charts indicated they reported a lump within an average 3½ weeks of detecting it. That's what they told the examining doctor. But when we pressed them, we found they had waited an average of seven months to report these lumps."

Driver Fined $10 In Arrest

A Gardendale motorist was fined and a soldier home on leave was given two suspended fines in traffic hearings today in Municipal Court.

Henry James Davis, 305 Gardendale Ave., was fined $10 and costs by Acting Judge Paul Tobin after pleading guilty to a reckless driving charge.

Patrolman Jack Strobel, who cited Davis at 1:43 p. m. Saturday, said the defendant pulled from Dewey Ave. onto Pennsylvania Ave. and then headed east at a high rate of speed. The officer said he had to travel 60 miles an hour to catch Davis.

Wesley Floyd Ammon, 41, of Ft. Knox, Ky., was fined $25 and costs on a charge of driving without an operator's license and $10 and costs for crashing a traffic signal at E. 5th St. and Broadway, but Judge Tobin suspended both fines on payment of costs.

Patrolman Karl W. Samples cited Ammon at 6:10 a. m. Sunday on Broadway.

Ammon, who is on medical leave from the Army, had a temporary Kentucky operator's permit which expired in 1961, police said.

Legion To Induct Wellsville Heads

New officers, headed by William (Buck) Powell, commander, will be installed by Wellsville American Legion Post 70 tonight at 8.

Walter McCoy of Lisbon, a past county commander, will be the installing officer.

It is Powell's second consecutive term. A World War II veteran, he served with the 97th Bomber Group, 15th Air Force, in Italy and flew 70 missions over Germany and Eastern Europe.

Other officers are Harry Excell, first vice commander; Jerome Gitschier, second vice commander; Francis House, adjutant; Elvie McDevitt, finance officer; Earl Leughmyer, chaplain; Mel Gitschier, Harry Crawford and Daun Gitschier, sergeants-at-arms; and Herman Liberatore, three-year trustee.

All are World War II veterans except McDevitt, who is a veteran of World War I. House will be serving his fourth consecutive term.

Food and refreshments will be served. Delegates from the post will attend the 6th District convention Saturday and Sunday at Post 374 in East Liverpool. The color guard will be in the district parade Sunday.

100 Attend 6th Grade Rite At Newell School

About 100 attended graduation ceremonies for the sixth grade of Newell Jefferson School Friday night at the school.

A program was presented by the 32 sixth graders, followed by a dinner sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association and a skating party at Harmony Skateland.

In the program, the Lord's Prayer was read by Dianna Underwood and the class prophecy was presented by Cathy Armstrong. Mary Taylor and Cherie Dorsey sang, "You'll Never Walk Alone" and Marlene Christian gave the class will. The Sixth Grade Chorus sang 'The Lord is My Shepherd" and "In the Still of the Night," accompanied by Janet Davis on the violin.

Class officers were introduced by William E. Patton, a sixth grade teacher. Graduation certificates then were presented. The affair was sponsored jointly by the school and the PTA, with Patton in charge.

Hearing Started In Credit Corp. Financial Tangle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Veterans' Memorial Building, just across the Scioto River from downtown Columbus and frequently the site of conventions and concerts, is scheduled to be put to another use today.

A U. S. District court hearing has been called in connection with the tangled affairs of Certified Credit Corp.

In calling the hearing, federal officials said three matters are to be considered:

Objections, if any, to retention of the three attorneys appointed by Judge Mell G. Underwood of U. S. District Court to handle the affairs of Certified Credit and six subsidiaries. They are Clarence A. Graham, Zanesville, and John J. Chester and Robert L. Barton, both of Columbus.

Presentation of claims of creditors and interests of stockholders. Saturday was the deadline for filing, but claims could be allowed later "upon good cause" and with court consent.

Examination of officers and directors of the corporations by attorneys representing the trustees.

Gail H. Butt, special master and referee in Bankruptcy, said he expects the hearing to last two or three days. Certified Credit Corp. and six subsidiaries have asked federal court for reorganization under chapter 10 of the Federal Bankruptcy Act.

Queen Will Be Named At Wells High's Prom

Crowning of a queen will highlight the annual Wells High School Junior-Senior Prom Friday night from 9 to midnight in the school auditorium in Newell.

The crowning will take place at 9, Principal E. Russell Slack announced.

Dick Golden's band will furnish music. Theme of the prom has been kept secret. All members of the Junior Class are serving on working committees.

Mrs. Ruth Shilling and Peter Horoszko are faculty sponsors.

Driver Given Citation After Crash At Negley

An East Palestine motorist was cited for a traffic violation after a two-car crash on Route 170 in Negley Saturday at 7:15 p. m. according to the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Officers said the crash involved cars driven by Robert Braheny of East Palestine and Norman W. Mobley, 55, of 25th St. Heights, Wellsville.

Braheny started making a right turn on to Route 170 to head north and ran into Mobley's car, which was halted at the stop sign, officers said.

'Rural Life' Sunday Marked At Event Of Clarkson Grange

"Rural Life" Sunday was observed at a coverdish dinner of the Clarkson Grange Sunday afternoon at the Grange Hall. Thirty-eight attended.

Mrs. Edith Thompson and her committee were in charge of table arrangements. Reuben Linger is master. Miss Lynn Elliott, lecturer, was in charge of the program. Games and contests were held, followed by a skit presented by the Rogerettes of the Rogers 4-H Club. A song, "Beautiful Grange," was sung by the group.

Pins were presented to seven veteran members of the Clarkson group by Charles Morlan, county deputy. Kim Crawford received a 50-year pin and 25-year pins were given to Everett George, Marie George, Carl Daiger, Ruth Daiger, Ronald Mackall and Don Elliott.

The Rogers 4-H members presented a song, accompanied on the piano by Lorna Elliott. A sketch on the life of Oliver Hudson Kelly, founder of the Grange, was given by Miss Elliott. Members of the Grange presented a tableau.

Principal speaker was the Rev. Robert Dyke of Edinburg, Pa., former pastor of the Fredericktown Christian Church. Talks also were given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crabb of East Palestine. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morlan of Leetonia, county grange deputy master and juvenile deputy, respectively, and Frank Conkle and Mrs. Blanche William, Grange members for over 50 years, Ronald Mackall of East Palestine, Mr. and Mrs. Everett George, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daiger and Donald Elliott.

Mrs. Morlan announced a Juvenile Grange meeting will be held June 10 at Highlandtown Grange. It also was announced the County Pomona Grange will sponsor a supper tonight at 6:30 at the Calcutta Grange.

Clarkson Grange will meet Thursday night at 8:30.

The United Presbyterian Women's Association of the Clarkson United Presbyterian Church will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 in the church annex. Mrs. Mildred Welce, president, will preside.

Mrs. Otis Gibson and Mrs. Mildred Welce will lead devotions. Mrs. Mildred Hole and Mrs. Marlene Hole will serve refreshments.

Daily Vacation Bible School will begin today at the annex of the United Presbyterian Church, continuing through Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lipp and children, Gregg and Penny, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. James Ketch of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meade and daughter, Sherri, are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hole, while en route home to Muskegon, Mich., after spending the winter in Ft. Myers, Fla.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all: results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Ceremony Attracts 150

Chevalier Degrees Given To 2 By DeMolay Chapter

About 150 attended the Chevalier Investiture of Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Saturday night in the Masonic Temple, when two youths were elevated to the highest degree for active DeMolays.

David A. Hoffman, master councilor, and Roger J. Hicks, past master councilor, received the Degree of Chevalier, a citation for outstanding and marked activity.

Homer D. Hoffman, chapter advisor and district deputy governor, was assisted in the rites by William H. Lowe, excellent high priest of East Liverpool Chapter 100, Royal Arch Masons; J. Clifford Conley, chevalier and chapter advisory council chairman; Robert Kidd, chevalier, grand chaplain, and Samuel W. Brown, chevalier and Legion of Honor, grand marshal.

H. Judson English was master of ceremonies. Ralph Hoffman, Samuel Blackburn, John Rayle and Robert Swan, Knights Templar, served as an honor guard. Misses Karen Keddie, honored queen, and Janet Ferguson, past honored queen, of Job's Daughters were candle attendants. The choir of Job's Daughters, directed by Mrs. Hazel Neiser, presented music during the program.

Mrs. Homer D. Hoffman, president of the Social Order of Beauceant, and Mrs. Harry E. Hicks, chaplain of the 6th District DeMolay Mothers Club, mothers of the new chevaliers, were presented orchid corsages by their sons. John Geren, senior councilor, gave the DeMolay rose ceremony, assisted by Brent English and William Fletcher, stewards.

Guests included J. Wesley Pieper of Canton, district governor; Mrs. Pieper, president of the District DeMolay Mothers Club; Ed Broadbent, illustrious master of Keramos Council, Royal and Select Masters; Lawrence Brokaw, commander of Pilgrim Commandery of Knights Templar, and Mrs. William Vale, president of the chapter's Mothers Club.

David Hoffman gave the master councilor's interlude for the interpolation prayer, given by Hicks. The new Chevaliers then retired, escorted by the candle attendants.

A buffet lunch was served in the grill room by the Mothers Club. The next chapter meeting is Thursday night at 7 in the temple.

150 In Stanton Local Honor Mrs. Hanlin On Retirement

About 150 attended a banquet Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Beulah Hanlin of Irondale, who is retiring after 42 years as a teacher in Stanton Local School District.

The fete was held at Stanton Local High School in Hammondsville, with many of her former pupils and associates present.

Mrs. Hanlin entered the teaching field in 1921 at the old Tarburner School in the former Saline Township District after training at Kent State University.

She moved on to the Irondale elementary school the following term and has served there 41 years.

Her pupils have included three generations of more than one family.

Taking part in the program were Atty. Robert Paisley, representing her former pupils; Mayor Quenton Henderson of Irondale, representing the village; Charles Hoobler, representing the Irondale Presbyterian Church; Arch Wardeska, representing the Irondale Methodist Church.

Miss Ina Butler, representing the faculty of the Irondale Elementary School, and Dr. William S. Banfield, representing the Stanton Board of Education.

Many of Mrs. Hanlin's relatives, some from out-of-town, were also present.

The Board of Education presented the retiring instructor with a silver bowl and the district's teachers presented a gift of pearls and jewelry.

Volunteers Quell Blaze In Tractor

The Liverpool Township, West, volunteer fire department at La-Croft responded to two calls over the weekend.

A tractor in a barn at the farm of Frank Conci of the Campground Rd. caught fire Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Firemen said Conci was filling the tractor with gasoline while the motor was running and the fuel ignited.

Some $100 damage resulted to the tractor. The Wellsville volunteer department also was called and arrived on the scene first. Eight men and two trucks responded from LaCroft and the firemen, not knowing how bad the blaze was, summoned a tank truck from Glenmoor.

The gas line to a clothes drier broke at the home of Tom Czech of 7th Ave., LaCroft, Sunday at 4:30 p.m.

The gas filled the house and also ignited at the rear of the drier, firemen said. Some $150 damage resulted. The department answered the call with the emergency truck and five men.

MISS DARLENE GORBY
Chooses Parents' Anniversary.

Darlene Gorby, Robert Kennedy Will Wed Friday

Miss Darlene Gorby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gorby of Negley, will become the bride of Robert Kennedy on Friday—the wedding anniversary of her parents.

The 7:30 o'clock open church ceremony will be held at the First Church of Christ in East Palestine with Dan Davis, minister, officiating.

An open reception will follow in the social rooms. Friends and relatives are invited as no invitations were sent.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kennedy of East Palestine.

Plummer-Thompson Rite Held In Bronxville, N. Y.

Margaret Penn Plummer, daughter of Mrs. Hamilton Orville Penn of Eastchester, N. Y., became the bride of John C. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Thompson of Park Blvd., in a ceremony Friday in the Reformed Church at Bronxville, N. Y.

Dr. Ray Freeman Jenney performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an embroidered blue and white sheath dress with a matching blue veil. Her flowing bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis. She carried a white Prayer Book.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Jerrold A. Frost Jr. of Birmingham, Mich. She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Mark Jung, who wore a raspberry-colored sheath dress with a blush pink veiled hat. Her bouquet was a cascade of sweetheart and garnet roses.

The mother of the bride wore blue and green chiffon with a matching hat and green orchids. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in pink and white embroidered linen with a white hat and white orchids.

A reception was held at the Pelham Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of Riverdale School for Girls and attended Pine Manor Junior College and Pennsylvania College for Women. She is a member of the Junior League of Larchmont.

MRS. JOHN C. THOMPSON
Pottery Official's Bride.

Thompson was graduated from Phillips Academy at Andover, Mass., and Yale University. He attended the graduate division of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania. He is a member of Theta Xi fraternity and Tau Beta Pi honorary engineering fraternity.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in East Liverpool. Thompson is treasurer of the Hall China Co.

Mr., Mrs. Charles R. Sayre Now Reside In Ashtabula

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sayre have returned from a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains and are residing at Ashtabula following their marriage the afternoon of May 18 at 2 o'clock in the First Christian Church there.

The bride was Mrs. Frances E. Talamas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juho E. Wilpula of Ashtabula, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayre of Hill Blvd.

The Rev. Edsel Pugh, pastor, officiated for the ceremony before an altar background of white snapdragons and carnations. Mrs. Corwin Allen was organist.

The bride wore a mint green silk organza sheath fashioned with a scoop neckline of Venetian lace, three - quarter - length sleeves and an overskirt. She wore a matching headpiece with theater veil and carried an arrangement of cymbidium orchids.

Miss Donna Jean Donoval, niece of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a peppermint green dress of sheer fabric over taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice and bell - shaped skirt. Her matching headpiece was similar to that of the bride. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink carnations and roses.

Richard M. Sayre served as his brother's best man. Wilbert Wilpula, brother of the bride, and Frank Licate were ushers.

The mother of the bride was attired in a teal blue sheath with pink rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a gold sheath with matching accessories and yellow tearose corsage. Mrs. Elmer Daugherty, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore beige lace and a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Karen Wilpula was at the guest register. Aides were Mrs. Frank Licate, Mrs. Wilbert Wilpula and Mrs. Agnes Donoval.

Guests were from Miami, Fla., Chicago, Geneva, Columbus, Kent and East Liverpool.

For traveling, the bride wore a mint green suit with brown accessories and her bridal orchids.

The bride is a graduate of the Cook County Hospital School of Nursing at Chicago and is on the staff of the Ashtabula General Hospital.

Her husband was graduated from East Liverpool High School and attended Kent State University. He served four years in the Air Force, including three in Germany. He is employed at the Ashtabula Farmers National Bank & Trust Co.

Plummer-Thompson Rite Held In Bronxville, N. Y.

Margaret Penn Plummer, daughter of Mrs. Hamilton Orville Penn of Eastchester, N. Y., became the bride of John C. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Thompson of Park Blvd., in a ceremony Friday in the Reformed Church at Bronxville, N. Y.

Dr. Ray Freeman Jenney performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an embroidered blue and white sheath dress with a matching blue veil. Her flowing bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis. She carried a white Prayer Book.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Jerrold A. Frost Jr. of Birmingham, Mich. She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Mark Jung, who wore a raspberry-colored sheath dress with a blush pink veiled hat. Her bouquet was a cascade of sweetheart and garnet roses.

The mother of the bride wore blue and green chiffon with a matching hat and green orchids. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in pink and white embroidered linen with a white hat and white orchids.

A reception was held at the Pelham Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of Riverdale School for Girls and attended Pine Manor Junior College and Pennsylvania College for Women. She is a member of the Junior League of Larchmont.

MRS. JOHN C. THOMPSON
Pottery Official's Bride.

Thompson was graduated from Phillips Academy at Andover, Mass., and Yale University. He attended the graduate division of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania. He is a member of Theta Xi fraternity and Tau Beta Pi honorary engineering fraternity.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in East Liverpool. Thompson is treasurer of the Hall China Co.

Mr., Mrs. Charles R. Sayre Now Reside In Ashtabula

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sayre have returned from a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains and are residing at Ashtabula following their marriage the afternoon of May 18 at 2 o'clock in the First Christian Church there.

The bride was Mrs. Frances E. Talamas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juho E. Wilpula of Ashtabula, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayre of Hill Blvd.

The Rev. Edsel Pugh, pastor, officiated for the ceremony before an altar background of white snapdragons and carnations. Mrs. Corwin Allen was organist.

The bride wore a mint green silk organza sheath fashioned with a scoop neckline of Venetian lace, three - quarter - length sleeves and an overskirt. She wore a matching headpiece with theater veil and carried an arrangement of cymbidium orchids.

Miss Donna Jean Donoval, niece of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a peppermint green dress of sheer fabric over taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice and bell - shaped skirt. Her matching headpiece was similar to that of the bride. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink carnations and roses.

Richard M. Sayre served as his brother's best man. Wilbert Wilpula, brother of the bride, and Frank Licate were ushers.

The mother of the bride was attired in a teal blue sheath with pink rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a gold sheath with matching accessories and yellow tearose corsage. Mrs. Elmer Daugherty, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore beige lace and a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Karen Wilpula was at the guest register. Aides were Mrs. Frank Licate, Mrs. Wilbert Wilpula and Mrs. Agnes Donoval.

Guests were from Miami, Fla., Chicago, Geneva, Columbus, Kent and East Liverpool.

For traveling, the bride wore a mint green suit with brown accessories and her bridal orchids.

The bride is a graduate of the Cook County Hospital School of Nursing at Chicago and is on the staff of the Ashtabula General Hospital.

Her husband was graduated from East Liverpool High School and attended Kent State University. He served four years in the Air Force, including three in Germany. He is employed at the Ashtabula Farmers National Bank & Trust Co.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

'Tell 'Em Don't . . .'

Merv Griffin has 82,000 unopened letters in his front closet and he knows what they all say. "People just don't believe we're not on the air any more," said he, shuddering at the task that still lies ahead.

Alan Gill

"I was in Ireland a couple of weeks ago, and wasn't there five minutes before an old lady was asking me, 'What ever happened there t'yeh show?' "

Sitting in his white-as-ermine, rich-as-gold apartment overlooking Manhattan's Central Park, Griffin spoke of the misfortune of losing his much-praised daytime program, "The Merv Griffin Show," without so much as a frown coming to his pleasant mug.

-:-

BUT WHY should it? He will star in not one but two summer stock comedies this season ("Come Blow Your Horn" and "The Moon Is Blue"); he will be the emcee of CBS-TV's warm-weather bloomer, "Talent Scouts," starting Tuesday night, July 2; and he is negotiating with at least one network for a regular Griffin show for the fall.

"It sure would be nice to have a prime-time version of my afternoon show," he said, his eyes glazing over with the delight of it. "But you say those magic words, prime time, to a network man and a big curtain comes ringing down in your face.

"They can't picture it — a talk show every night from 7:30 to 8:30 — but I can. And I'd need that every - night repetition to make it go.

-:-

"BUT THERE'LL be so many shows formatted like that in the fall — 'Today,' 'Tonight,' Steve Allen, Jerry Lewis — that the celebrities, to get around, will have to start getting up at 4:30 in the morning."

A visitor told Griffin that almost every performer he'd met shook his head and smiled the tight grin of a survivor.

"Tell 'em don't," he said.

The success of the typical Griffin television interview — and it was a model of its kind — rested in the pre-program research. Two "newspaper people" on Griffin's payroll would visit each guest and chat with him for ages "about nonshow business things, the things that excited his mind" and then hand their copious reports over to Griffin, who in turn would make his own notes about a topic that seemed most promising.

"I WOULDN'T meet the guest prior to going on the air. So naturally I couldn't tell him what subject we'd talk about. If we'd run into a snag right away — if I'd get a funny reaction—then fine, that's good television. It's honest."

On "Talent Scouts," the pre-show interviewing will be done by George Foster, a veteran comedy writer, who thereupon will pass on his observations to Griffin. But:

"There won't be any gags or setups, just a quick and easy-going thing, like we had going in the daytime show. We'll have six acts each show — with five "presenters,' who are celebrities, and one act presented by the house.

"Our first presenter, by the way, will be Vaughn Meader, just one year to the day since he made his first appearance as a new talent on the show last summer. It was George Foster, you know who helped assemble Meader's original JFK act.

-:-

"THIS SHOW is a fantastic property. It's the only one around that gives us a look at new people and gives them a nice kick-off. Of course, I've introduced newcomers in the afternoon show; but then Ed Sullivan would sign them on and not let them come back with us."

Since the daytime show went off the air, Griffin has had a busy, out-of-work few weeks.

"What a month!" he cried. "I had an audience with the Pope, emceed the White House Press Correspondents' dinner for the President, and was up for an Emmy.

"The President, I found, still has the old appeal. When he arrived, I thought it was Paul Anka coming in. The screams were that blood-curdling.

"I was in awe of the assemblage, too. It included every member of the cabinet and the Supreme Court, lots of congressmen and senators — everybody! And all locked in!

"I started out with the usual, 'Mr. President, Mr. Chief Justice,' and so forth. Then I said, 'We're all gathered here tonight to record a new comedy album.' "

Inaugural Ball Draws 90

Robert Lewis Presented Junior Chamber Trophy

The presentation of the 14th annual Patrick J. O'Farrell award and the awarding of a life membership were the highlights of the annual inaugural ball of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday night at the Country Club. More than 90 attended.

The O'Farrell trophy, presented to the outstanding committee chairman of the last year, went to Robert Lewis, retiring president, for his work on the Master Plan committee. John B. (Jack) Hales, retiring secretary, was named a life member for outstanding service to the organization.

The O'Farrell award is made by the life members of the Jaycees in memory of the man who aided in getting the Jaycees organized in 1939.

It is the first time it has been presented to a president. The committee selected him because he kept the Master Plan committee under his direction, and as chairman, pushed the project through, finally getting legislation passed by City Council.

A native of Chester, he attended schools there and was graduated from the West Virginia University College of Pharmacy. He was a member of the marching bands of Chester High and the university. He was active in a pharmacy fraternity at colllege. He served two years in the Army and has been employed by Bloor's Pharmacy since June 10, 1954. He is manager of the downtown store.

He is married and has a son. He is a member of the United Presbyterian Church and resides in Fisher Park. He has been a member of the Jaycees since November 1957.

Hales joined the Jaycees in May 1958 and has attended all general membership meetings in the last four years. He has served as secretary for the last two years. He has missed only two meetings of the Board of Trustees since his election. He has worked on virtually every project of the organization in the past four years.

An employe of The Review, he is married and has two children.

He received the Patrick J. O'Farrell award the first year he joined. He served on several committees and was first elected to the trustees for the 1959-60 term. He later was elected vice president. He also received several other awards and citations for his work.

H. James Allison, a life member and past president, presented the O'Farrell award to Lewis. The announcement of Hale's life membership was made by Lewis.

W. Edward Adkins, past president, was master of ceremonies.

Presidential awards of honor went to retiring board members. They are Robert Garner, John Woomer, Dick Chadwick, Frank Dawson, Dale Kidd, Joe Coons, Keith Sevy and Paul Zehnder.

Spoke awards, given to first year members for their accomplishments, went to Ron Garland, Robert Garner, Vincent Laneve, Robert E. Miller, John Parsons and Larry Walton.

Certificates of merit for outstanding work went to Glenn Waight of the Review, co-ordinator of the scholarship fund drive; Coons, chairman of the scholarship fund; Woomer, Halloween dance; Miller, Labor Day coffee stop for motorists; Dave Dailey, April coverdish dinner; Larry Walton, October social.

Tait Hilbert, teen-age Road-E-O chairman; Paul Seckman, post - prom party chairman; Garner, Home Show chairman; Russ Brown, Bosses Night chairman; John Parsons, Christmas activities and teen-age dances; Dave Kennedy, toys for tots program; Frank Potts, boat regatta, membership night and co-chairman of the inaugural ball, and Laneve, co-chairman of the inaugural ball.

Certificates of appreciation went to the Review and WOHI. Certificates and pins were presented five "exhausted roosters," those who have reached 36, the age limit for membership. They are Paul Davis, Jack Ludwig, Dick Hunsicker, Hales and Ralph Smith.

Key Man awards and pins, presented to members of the executive committee, went to Robert Brooks, first vice president; Potts, second vice president; Hales, secretary, and Brown, treasurer.

New officers, headed by Robert Brooks, president, were installed.

Scotty Young and the Headliners provided music for dancing.

Out Of The Air

'Tell 'Em Don't . . .'

Merv Griffin has 82,000 unopened letters in his front closet and he knows what they all say. "People just don't believe we're not on the air any more," said he, shuddering at the task that still lies ahead.

Alan Gill

"I was in Ireland a couple of weeks ago, and wasn't there five minutes before an old lady was asking me, 'What ever happened there t'yeh show?' "

Sitting in his white-as-ermine, rich-as-gold apartment overlooking Manhattan's Central Park, Griffin spoke of the misfortune of losing his much-praised daytime program, "The Merv Griffin Show," without so much as a frown coming to his pleasant mug.

-:-

BUT WHY should it? He will star in not one but two summer stock comedies this season ("Come Blow Your Horn" and "The Moon Is Blue"); he will be the emcee of CBS-TV's warm-weather bloomer, "Talent Scouts," starting Tuesday night, July 2; and he is negotiating with at least one network for a regular Griffin show for the fall.

"It sure would be nice to have a prime-time version of my afternoon show," he said, his eyes glazing over with the delight of it. "But you say those magic words, prime time, to a network man and a big curtain comes ringing down in your face.

"They can't picture it — a talk show every night from 7:30 to 8:30 — but I can. And I'd need that every - night repetition to make it go.

-:-

"BUT THERE'LL be so many shows formatted like that in the fall — 'Today,' 'Tonight,' Steve Allen, Jerry Lewis — that the celebrities, to get around, will have to start getting up at 4:30 in the morning."

A visitor told Griffin that almost every performer he'd met shook his head and smiled the tight grin of a survivor.

"Tell 'em don't," he said.

The success of the typical Griffin television interview — and it was a model of its kind — rested in the pre-program research. Two "newspaper people" on Griffin's payroll would visit each guest and chat with him for ages "about nonshow business things, the things that excited his mind" and then hand their copious reports over to Griffin, who in turn would make his own notes about a topic that seemed most promising.

"I WOULDN'T meet the guest prior to going on the air. So naturally I couldn't tell him what subject we'd talk about. If we'd run into a snag right away — if I'd get a funny reaction—then fine, that's good television. It's honest."

On "Talent Scouts," the pre-show interviewing will be done by George Foster, a veteran comedy writer, who thereupon will pass on his observations to Griffin. But:

"There won't be any gags or setups, just a quick and easy-going thing, like we had going in the daytime show. We'll have six acts each show — with five "presenters,' who are celebrities, and one act presented by the house.

"Our first presenter, by the way, will be Vaughn Meader, just one year to the day since he made his first appearance as a new talent on the show last summer. It was George Foster, you know who helped assemble Meader's original JFK act.

"THIS SHOW is a fantastic property. It's the only one around that gives us a look at new people and gives them a nice kick-off. Of course, I've introduced newcomers in the afternoon show; but then Ed Sullivan would sign them on and not let them come back with us."

Since the daytime show went off the air, Griffin has had a busy, out-of-work few weeks.

"What a month!" he cried. "I had an audience with the Pope, emceed the White House Press Correspondents' dinner for the President, and was up for an Emmy.

"The President, I found, still has the old appeal. When he arrived, I thought it was Paul Anka coming in. The screams were that blood-curdling.

"I was in awe of the assemblage, too. It included every member of the cabinet and the Supreme Court, lots of congressmen and senators — everybody! And all locked in!

"I started out with the usual, 'Mr. President, Mr. Chief Justice,' and so forth. Then I said, 'We're all gathered here tonight to record a new comedy album.' "

The presentation of the 14th annual Patrick J. O'Farrell award and the awarding of a life membership were the highlights of the annual inaugural ball of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday night at the Country Club. More than 90 attended.

The O'Farrell trophy, presented to the outstanding committee chairman of the last year, went to Robert Lewis, retiring president, for his work on the Master Plan committee. John B. (Jack) Hales, retiring secretary, was named a life member for outstanding service to the organization.

The O'Farrell award is made by the life members of the Jaycees in memory of the man who aided in getting the Jaycees organized in 1939.

It is the first time it has been presented to a president. The committee selected him because he kept the Master Plan committee under his direction, and as chairman, pushed the project through, finally getting legislation passed by City Council.

A native of Chester, he attended schools there and was graduated from the West Virginia University College of Pharmacy. He was a member of the marching bands of Chester High and the university. He was active in a pharmacy fraternity at colllege. He served two years in the Army and has been employed by Bloor's Pharmacy since June 10, 1954. He is manager of the downtown store.

He is married and has a son. He is a member of the United Presbyterian Church and resides in Fisher Park. He has been a member of the Jaycees since November 1957.

Hales joined the Jaycees in May 1958 and has attended all general membership meetings in the last four years. He has served as secretary for the last two years. He has missed only two meetings of the Board of Trustees since his election. He has worked on virtually every project of the organization in the past four years.

An employe of The Review, he is married and has two children.

He received the Patrick J. O'Farrell award the first year he joined. He served on several committees and was first elected to the trustees for the 1959-60 term. He later was elected vice president. He also received several other awards and citations for his work.

H. James Allison, a life member and past president, presented the O'Farrell award to Lewis. The announcement of Hale's life membership was made by Lewis.

W. Edward Adkins, past president, was master of ceremonies.

Presidential awards of honor went to retiring board members. They are Robert Garner, John Woomer, Dick Chadwick, Frank Dawson, Dale Kidd, Joe Coons, Keith Sevy and Paul Zehnder.

Spoke awards, given to first year members for their accomplishments, went to Ron Garland, Robert Garner, Vincent Laneve, Robert E. Miller, John Parsons and Larry Walton.

Certificates of merit for outstanding work went to Glenn Waight of the Review, co-ordinator of the scholarship fund drive; Coons, chairman of the scholarship fund; Woomer, Halloween dance; Miller, Labor Day coffee stop for motorists; Dave Dailey, April coverdish dinner; Larry Walton, October social.

Tait Hilbert, teen-age Road-E-O chairman; Paul Seckman, post - prom party chairman; Garner, Home Show chairman; Russ Brown, Bosses Night chairman; John Parsons, Christmas activities and teen-age dances; Dave Kennedy, toys for tots program; Frank Potts, boat regatta, membership night and co-chairman of the inaugural ball, and Laneve, co-chairman of the inaugural ball.

Certificates of appreciation went to the Review and WOHI. Certificates and pins were presented five "exhausted roosters," those who have reached 36, the age limit for membership. They are Paul Davis, Jack Ludwig, Dick Hunsicker, Hales and Ralph Smith.

Key Man awards and pins, presented to members of the executive committee, went to Robert Brooks, first vice president; Potts, second vice president; Hales, secretary, and Brown, treasurer.

New officers, headed by Robert Brooks, president, were installed.

Scotty Young and the Headliners provided music for dancing.

Mrs. Edwin Cooper has received word of the death of her nephew, Carl Cowan of Santa Ana, Calif. Mr. Cowan, 58, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cowan of Crafton, Pa. Mrs. William Cowan was the former Mabel Laughlin of Georgetown.

Continuance Set For Man's Trial In Knifing Case

A hearing for a Jethro man accused of knifing a neighbor woman in the right hand early Saturday was set tentatively for Wednesday morning after the defendant was granted a continuance this morning in Municipal Court to consult with an attorney.

Advised by Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin that the charge of assault with a deadly weapon is a felony, Jessie Floyd Kent, 730 Leonard St., asked for the continuance to confer with his counsel, whom he identified as Atty. W. S. Foulks.

Agreeing to continue the case, Acting Judge Tobin set Kent's bond at $1,500.

Kent surrendered to police about 3:30 a. m. Saturday, some 50 minutes after officers had been called to the home of Mrs. Emma Heft, 716 Leonard St. Taken to City Hospital for treatment, Mrs. Heft suffered multiple stab wounds of the hand.

Kent had fled when officers arrived at the home but walked into the police station later and gave up.

Play To Open Tuesday For Hot Stove League

Daniel Wright of the South Side Athletic Club announced today that the area Hot Stove League baseball seniors will begin play Tuesday, with three games on the schedule.

The Georgetown - Shippingport nine, managed by Dave Lyons, will travel to Hookstown to meet Ed Wright's team.

The senior loop is scheduled to play each Tuesday and Thursday, while the Hot Stove Juniors, which will open action on June 10, will play on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Negley Carnival Set

NEGLEY — The 12th annual carnival of the volunteer fire department will be held Wednesday through Saturday. A parade Wednesday night at 7 will mark the opening.

Beef Seen Economical Buy After Boost In Pork Prices

Although fresh pork prices have risen sharply in the last week, beef still is an economical buy, holding well below last year's levels, according to Ed Watkins, market information agent with the Agriculture Extension Service in Canfield.

Warmer weather has put the greater share of specials on the quicker cooking cuts of beef. All kinds of steaks, ground beef, and cold cuts are popular choices.

Because of this seasonal demand, some choices of beef from the forequarter also are excellent buys because of lack of demand. These would include chuck roasts, blade and round bone steaks, rib roasts and hamburg.

Beef prices are expected to change little during the next several weeks.

Live animal prices for pork have increased sharply during the last two weeks. This has been reflected in wholesale prices and now retail prices are beginning to follow this trend.

This week the price rise has affected fresh pork more than cured pork products. There is quite a storage stock of hams, bacon, and picnics but these prices, too, will begin to increase this week.

Poultry broilers are offering real competition for beef. Broiler production has been increasing to meet the heavy midsummer demand, although this supply adjustment is more gradual than in 1962.

Total supplies for June are about the same as last year. This is one of the price choices for this week.

Egg production, too, is at a high point for the season. Egg prices are close to their low point of the year, and represent an excellent economy choice.

Next weekend should see the first of the local - grown strawberries on the market in any quantity. Frost and freezing weather during the third week of May seriously damaged what was already a below - average crop in Northeastern Ohio. Supplies of strawberries will be rather sporadic and uncertain.

Local fruit growers, already minus a peach crop from last winter's record low temperatures, also report damage to the developing apple crop. Michigan growers report a third of a cherry crop in the Traverse City area. Prospects are for a rather short crop on most of our popular summer fruits.

Sales Tax Collection Declines In County

Sales tax collections in Columbiana County for the two-week period ending May 25 totaled $81,843, compared to $89,606 for a corresponding period last year, State Treasurer John D. Herbert said today.

The total collected since the start of the fiscal year July 1 now stands at $1,646,826 against $1,614,790 for the corresponding period in 1962.

4-H News

About 20 members of the Beaver Local Bells 4-H Club held a wiener roast Friday night at the home of Mrs. Donald Thompson of Calcutta.

A brief meeting was held. Next meeting is June 11 with Mrs. Thompson.

Installation Launched For New Water Main

Installation of a new 10 - inch feeder main on Bradshaw Ave. to supply water to the downtown area was started this morning by water department crews.

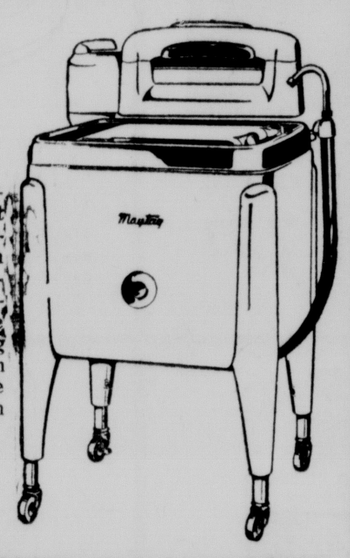

Donald T. Duke, superintendent, said the work of installing the section of the main between Walnut and Ravine Sts. is expected to take several days.

The new line will replace a section buried about 15 feet deep and beneath a sanitary sewer in which a break occurred last July. When the new line has been completed, the older main will be abandoned, Duke said.

An abandoned gas main will have to be removed before the new line is installed, he said. The department already has installed offsets to allow the water line to be raised closer to the surface.

Paper money was first used in the United States in 1690 in Massachusetts Bay Colony, but it was not until 1861 that Congress authorized the issuance of a national paper currency.

Mary Cyran, Milton E. Dixon Marry In Rites In Maryland

Miss Mary R. Cyran of Riverdale, Md., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Thomas Raab of Belmont, N.C., became the bride of Milton E. Dixon of Hyattsville, Md., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dixon of Georgetown, on May 25 in St. Luke's Episcopal Church at Bladensburg, Md.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. K. L. Arnold, rector.

The bride wore a fuchia crepe dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Her sister, Miss Christine Raab, maid of honor, wore beige with matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Curtis Finley of Georgetown, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

A reception for 75 was held in the church social room following the ceremony. The couple left for a honeymoon in upper New York state and Canada. They will live in West Hyattsville, Md.

Installation of officers for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Georgetown Methodist Church will be held during the worship service next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. David Dayen, pastor, will conduct the installation. Worship services in June will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Charles Finley and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Laughlin of Pittsburgh, attended the wedding Wednesday of Jack Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller of East Liverpool, to Miss Sara Hillyard, daughter of Alvin Hillyard of Lawrenceville. The service was performed in the Chester Methodist Church, with a reception following in the church social room.

Dr. and Mrs. James Ross of Carlisle, Ohio, have concluded a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Welborn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day of McKeesport visited friends in the area Tuesday.

Miss Ann Marie Hewitt, Miss Nancy Mackall, Miss Lillian Laughlin and Mrs. Janice Stevenson of Arlington, Va., visited recently with their families here.

Mrs. William Bradley and Richard Landis were recent guests of Myrtle Kinsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Alvis of Lebanon, Ohio, were recent visitors in the area.

Mrs. Edwin Cooper has received word of the death of her nephew, Carl Cowan of Santa Ana, Calif. Mr. Cowan, 58, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cowan of Crafton, Pa. Mrs. William Cowan was the former Mabel Laughlin of Georgetown.

Continuance Set For Man's Trial In Knifing Case

A hearing for a Jethro man accused of knifing a neighbor woman in the right hand early Saturday was set tentatively for Wednesday morning after the defendant was granted a continuance this morning in Municipal Court to consult with an attorney.

Advised by Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin that the charge of assault with a deadly weapon is a felony, Jessie Floyd Kent, 730 Leonard St., asked for the continuance to confer with his counsel, whom he identified as Atty. W. S. Foulks.

Agreeing to continue the case, Acting Judge Tobin set Kent's bond at $1,500.

Kent surrendered to police about 3:30 a. m. Saturday, some 50 minutes after officers had been called to the home of Mrs. Emma Heft, 716 Leonard St. Taken to City Hospital for treatment, Mrs. Heft suffered multiple stab wounds of the hand.

Kent had fled when officers arrived at the home but walked into the police station later and gave up.

Play To Open Tuesday For Hot Stove League

Daniel Wright of the South Side Athletic Club announced today that the area Hot Stove League baseball seniors will begin play Tuesday, with three games on the schedule.

Lawrenceville, managed by Louie Marshall, will visit Frankfort Springs, managed by Harry Spence. Newell, managed by John Kiger, will travel to Hanover, which is managed by Joe Brooks.

The Georgetown - Shippingport nine, managed by Dave Lyons, will travel to Hookstown to meet Ed Wright's team.

The senior loop is scheduled to play each Tuesday and Thursday, while the Hot Stove Juniors, which will open action on June 10, will play on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Negley Carnival Set

NEGLEY — The 12th annual carnival of the volunteer fire department will be held Wednesday through Saturday. A parade Wednesday night at 7 will mark the opening.

Beef Seen Economical Buy After Boost In Pork Prices

Although fresh pork prices have risen sharply in the last week, beef still is an economical buy, holding well below last year's levels, according to Ed Watkins, market information agent with the Agriculture Extension Service in Canfield.

Warmer weather has put the greater share of specials on the quicker cooking cuts of beef. All kinds of steaks, ground beef, and cold cuts are popular choices.

Because of this seasonal demand, some choices of beef from the forequarter also are excellent buys because of lack of demand. These would include chuck roasts, blade and round bone steaks, rib roasts and hamburg.

Beef prices are expected to change little during the next several weeks.

Live animal prices for pork have increased sharply during the last two weeks. This has been reflected in wholesale prices and now retail prices are beginning to follow this trend.

This week the price rise has affected fresh pork more than cured pork products. There is quite a storage stock of hams, bacon, and picnics but these prices, too, will begin to increase this week.

Poultry broilers are offering real competition for beef. Broiler production has been increasing to meet the heavy midsummer demand, although this supply adjustment is more gradual than in 1962.

Total supplies for June are about the same as last year. This is one of the price choices for this week.

Egg production, too, is at a high point for the season. Egg prices are close to their low point of the year, and represent an excellent economy choice.

Next weekend should see the first of the local - grown strawberries on the market in any quantity. Frost and freezing weather during the third week of May seriously damaged what was already a below - average crop in Northeastern Ohio. Supplies of strawberries will be rather sporadic and uncertain.

Local fruit growers, already minus a peach crop from last winter's record low temperatures, also report damage to the developing apple crop. Michigan growers report a third of a cherry crop in the Traverse City area. Prospects are for a rather short crop on most of our popular summer fruits.

Sales Tax Collection Declines In County

Sales tax collections in Columbiana County for the two-week period ending May 25 totaled $81,843, compared to $89,606 for a corresponding period last year, State Treasurer John D. Herbert said today.

The total collected since the start of the fiscal year July 1 now stands at $1,646,826 against $1,614,790 for the corresponding period in 1962.

4-H News

About 20 members of the Beaver Local Bells 4-H Club held a wiener roast Friday night at the home of Mrs. Donald Thompson of Calcutta.

A brief meeting was held. Next meeting is June 11 with Mrs. Thompson.

Installation Launched For New Water Main

Installation of a new 10 - inch feeder main on Bradshaw Ave. to supply water to the downtown area was started this morning by water department crews.

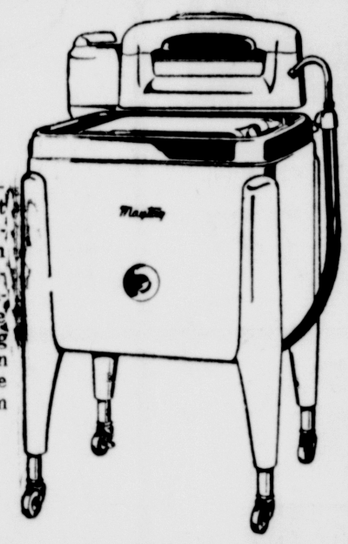

Donald T. Duke, superintendent, said the work of installing the section of the main between Walnut and Ravine Sts. is expected to take several days.

The new line will replace a section buried about 15 feet deep and beneath a sanitary sewer in which a break occurred last July. When the new line has been completed, the older main will be abandoned, Duke said.

An abandoned gas main will have to be removed before the new line is installed, he said. The department already has installed offsets to allow the water line to be raised closer to the surface.

Paper money was first used in the United States in 1690 in Massachusetts Bay Colony, but it was not until 1861 that Congress authorized the issuance of a national paper currency.

Asked if he would comply with an order against interference, Wallace told interviewers: "I am going to take the action I told you I was going to take."

He added: "I am not hoping to have myself arrested. This is a dramatic way to express to the American people the omnipotent march of centralized government."

assessments of local political observers—the chief executives of Idaho, Kansas, Maine, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Oregon were credited with leaning in his direction.

These states, in which the governors are expected to head delegations, will cast 144 convention votes. If he were a candidate, Rockefeller would add New York's 92 to this total toward the 655 needed to win.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., a potential rival, was credited with support of the governors of Arizona, Montana and South Dakota. These states will have a total of 40 convention votes.

The object of several draft movements, Goldwater is continuing a heavy speaking schedule while maintaining that he isn't a candidate. He will invade Rockefeller territory Wednesday with a speech at the Calvin Bullock Forum in New York City.

Pope

the Vatican issued a series of statements saying that the agony was continuing slowly, the Pope's life was ebbing, there was nothing to do but wait.

The Vatican said that the Pope's resistance to death had defied every medical expectation.

At 6:40 a.m.—12:40 a.m. EST—the Vatican press office announced that he had suffered still another crisis — but again had pulled through. The radio said the crisis seemed for a moment to have ended his life but he rallied once more, and the slow course of his suffering continued.

The statement said his fever reached 104 degrees Fahrenheit and his pulse had increased to 140 beats a minute.

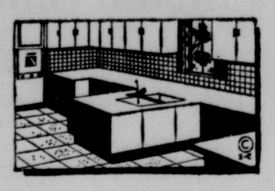

At 7:07 a.m.—1:07 a.m. EST—the Vatican radio announced that the Pope was suffering "atrocious pain" and had been holding a cross to his chest for more than four hours.

Consciousness came and went as the Pope lived through the night, but most of the time he was in a coma.

Only loss of consciousness eased Pope John's pain, the radio said.

"When he can," said the announcement, "he concentrates on prayer."

U.S. Constantly Widens Missile Lead, Aide Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

NUCLEAR: Paul H. Nitze, the Pentagon's international security affairs expert, says the United States is daily widening an edge over the Soviet Union in production of nuclear missiles.

Every day a Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile or a Polaris missile is added to the American deterrent force, the assistant secretary of defense said Sunday in a radio-television interview.

"We don't believe they are equalling that rate," he added.

While the Soviet Union is increasing its defense budget substantially, Nitze said, there is no evidence of a crash program.

RAILS: Representatives of the railroads and five operating unions meet Tuesday with Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

Wirtz' object: to find out where they stand in negotiations over work rules changes. If no agreement is reached by midnight June 11 the unions will be free to strike.

There have been no reports of progress since the current round of talks began May 20.

The dispute centers on the railroads' desire to eliminate thousands of jobs that they say no longer are necessary and constitute an unfair cost burden.

BOOMING BARRY: Groups from virtually every state will attend a draft Goldwater Independence Day rally to be held here July 4, Peter O'Donnell Jr., chairman of the National Draft Goldwater Committee, said today.

HEADS CHURCH. Mrs. Helen Wood Bauman became the new president of the Christian Science Church today at Boston where several thousand members assembled for the annual meeting at the world headquarters of the Mother Church. The First Church of Christ, Scientist. Mrs. Bauman is editor of the denomination's religious periodicals and will continue in that post while serving the one-year term as president.

3 File Appeal In Extradition

LISBON — Three Youngstown area men fighting extradition to West Virginia to face burglary charges have filed appeals with the 7th District Court of Appeals.

The appeals were filed on behalf of Amil Dinsio, 26, of Poland and Daniel N. Marshall, 33, and Harold Dailey, 32, both of Austintown, who have been accused of burglary at the home of Gene Costalas, 67, of Weirton early on March 28.

The three were apprehended later the same morning at a stakeout at a truck stop east of Columbiana before police officials were aware of the Weirton burglary.

They were indicted by the Columbiana County Grand Jury on charges of carrying concealed weapons but Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard has yet to rule on their April 25 motion to quash the indictments and suppress the evidence.

The three claim they were arrested illegally and officers failed to have search warrants when they found the weapons.

Falls Injure 2 Children; Glenmoor Woman Hurt

Two children injured in falls from bicycles and a Glenmoor woman hurt in a fall over a fence were admitted Sunday to City Hospital, where eight other persons were treated over the weekend.

Mrs. Hazel Kiehl of Harvard Ave., wife of Laverne Kiehl, is in "fairly good" condition today with a possible fracture leg suffered when she fell over a small fence around a flower bed. She was admitted Sunday at 4:55 p. m.

William Stone, 12, son of Mark Stone, 1722 Etruria St., is in "good" condition with a closed fracture of the left arm and abrasions of the left elbow and wrist suffered when he fell from his bicycle. He was admitted Sunday night at 8:10.

Ruth Beaver, 16, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Beaver, rear 205 Beechwood Ave., is in "fair" condition with fractured ribs suffered when she fell from a bicycle. She was admitted Sunday at 10:10 p. m.

Six others were treated yesterday, including an elderly woman who fell from a car.

Rae Anderson, 16, daughter of Roy Anderson of Hookstown R. D. 1, suffered first and second degree burns of the right hand when she spilled hot soup on herself while working at a Georgetown confectionary.

Roland Maze, 10, son of Herbert Maze, 1706 Commerce St., Wellsville, cut his foot on glass while swimming.

Mrs. Clara Neilson, 70, of Substation Rd. fell from a car driven by a nephew, Mathias Smith. She was treated at 5:20 p. m. for abrasions of the legs, ankle, forehead and hips.

Scott Burson, 4, son of Ralph Burson Jr., 804 Chester Ave., suffered abrasions and a small laceration of the forehead and was X-rayed for a possible skull fracture after falling against a curbstone.

Charles Clark Jr., 8, son of Charles Clark, 1906 Nevada St., Wellsville, had a fishhook removed from the ring finger of his right hand.

Terry Barcus, 17, son of Donald Barcus, 315 Center St., suffered abrasions of the right elbow, hand and knee when he fell from a bicycle after the tire blew out.

Two were treated Saturday night. Elmer Daniels, 2, son of James Daniels, 215 Highland Ave., Wellsville, suffered lacerations of the lip and under the left eyebrow when another child slammed a car door in his face.

Mrs. Joyce Imburgia, 1098 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville, suffered a laceration and puncture wound of the lower right leg when struck by an unknown object while cutting grass with a power mower.

Hancock PTA's Delegates Attend Area 'Workshop'

Fourteen members of Parent - Teacher Associations in Hancock County attended the 13th annual PTA workshop at Jackson's Mill Friday through Sunday. The topic was "Signposts of Responsibility."

Featured speakers were Circuit Judge Arlos J. Harbert of Harrison County, Dr. K. Duane Hurley, president of Salem College, and Dr. Richard Shearer, president of Alderson - Broaddus College.

Leadership training was emphasized and a special session was held for presidents. A total of 248 attended, including 52 from Region 10, which includes Hancock, Brooke and Ohio Counties.

Mrs. Charles Wagner of Chester, president of the Hancock County PTA Council, headed the delegates. Others included Mrs. John Stankiewicz, Mrs. Claudius Ford, Mrs. Ted Cwiczynski, Mrs. Charles French, Mrs. Eugene Cox, Mrs. Austin Ford, Mrs. Robert Golden, Mrs. Ben Costello, Mrs. John Rateau, Mrs. George Starr, Mrs. Terrence McCullough, Mrs. John Plisa and Mrs. John Selip.

A tour of Jackson's Mill was part of the entertainment.

Estimates show that the number of small birds in the U.S. is increasing, while the number of large birds is on the wane. Large birds have been hunted more than small ones, and they suffer more when woods and forests are cleared.

290 Make Inspection Tour Of County Home

LISBON — There were 298 visitors at the County Home Sunday from 2 to 9 p.m., according to Walter Hunston of East Palestine, president of the commissioners.

The commissioners were very pleased with the turnout and the favorable remarks made by the visitors on the condition of the home and the farm, he said.

The commissioners set up the open house after receiving a letter May 22 from Don R. Gosney, county Democratic chairman, signed by 28 Democrats, wanting information on the home.

Hunston said anyone wishing to see the home can do so at any reasonable time and as work progresses at the home the board hopes to have open house again.

100 Attend Farewell For Mrs. Blackburn

Approximately 140 attended a farewell dinner Saturday night at the Valley Golf Club at Columbiana honoring Mrs. Kay Blackburn of Columbiana, county Democratic chairwoman for the past seven years.

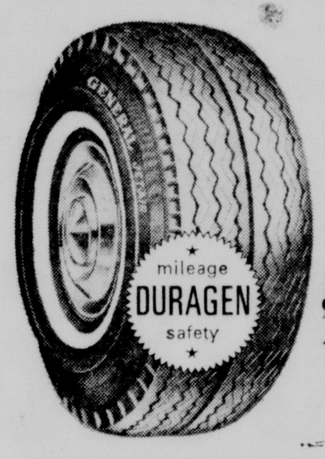

Mrs. Blackburn, who will leave soon to make her home in Baltimore, Md., received several gifts.

A precinct committeeman and past president of the county political club which she helped organize, Mrs. Blackburn also was a member of the County Welfare Advisory Board and the Board of Visitors.

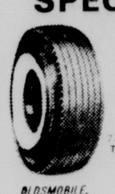

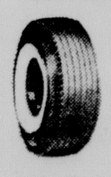

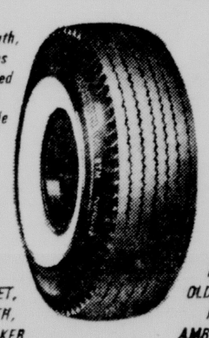

A new chairwoman has not been named.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Your hints are too numerous to remember and too helpful to forget. My solution: Bulletin boards, made from a sheet of note paper, cardboard, or a side cut from a grocery store box. These bulletin boards are placed at stretegic points in my home.

Example: Each day I go over your column and clip any hints that I may put to use immediately or in the future. These hints apply to my own personal little world.

An ironing board hint is taped or thumb-tacked to my bulletin board next to my iron.

Sewing hints are put on the board placed at my sewing machine.

Cleaning of appliances, etc., are put on the board inside my cabinet where the cleaning supplies are kept.

Salad hints are tacked on my spice and herb cabinet door.

Gardening hints cover my bulletin board in the garage where the tools are kept, and so on.

You have no idea how many times I refer to (and use) all this valuable information and simply because it is safely preserved on my various little bulletin boards.

MARGARET HOWARD.

DEAR HELOISE: For those who was traveling with babies, may I suggest that they buy the plastic-lined disposable diapers and secure them with cellophane tape rather than pins. This eliminates tearing the diapers and there is no worry about sticking the child with a pin while in a moving vehicle.

MRS. G. P. DARAKJIAN

Gals, I thought I had heard of using cellophane tape for just about everything. This suggestion is one of the dandiest hint that has ever come into this column. Bless her for helping us with our babies.

HELOISE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: A combination of lemon juice and fine salt, using the rind of the lemon as a pad, cleans my brass beautifully. Patience and sometimes more than one cleaning does the trick.

MRS. C. KLEIN.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: When serving a half grapefruit, if you will cut a thin slice off the bottom, it will rest more securely on the plate and not topple.

CAROL LENTZ.

DEAR HELOISE: My son is 14 months old. He is at the point where he would much rather be in my scrub pail than in his playpen.

I just discovered that if I put all of his toys in a large paper bag, he will be happy pulling them out for at least a half hour longer than usual.

I put the toys in the paper bag in his playpen after he has gone to bed. When he wakes up that bag is very intriguing.

I keep another bag full of toys put away in the closet. Now and then I switch these two bags. Then all of the old toys are new to him again. By the way, these are not expensive toys. A lot of nice empty small boxes and plastic bottles are included.

BABY.

DEAR GALS: If you have a garbage disposal, some day take a flashlight, pull the rubber flaps back and look down into the disposal and see how close the grinding gadget is! Some disposals are closer to the sink than others.

Don't take a chance on grinding your finger away. Take your flashlight and a few minutes of your time, and it might have saved you not only a finger but a knuckle, too!

HELOISE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: One day when my sugar cannister was empty and I was whipping cream for pumpkin pie, I discovered that two heaping tablespoons of powdered sugar will add a lot of consistency of the cream. It will last another day by storing in the refrigerator. I always use it now to sweeten our whipped cream and love it.

MRS. D. H. SPRECKELS.

DEAR HELOISE: I get rid of "fishy odor" in my garments by merely putting the garment—or material—in comfortable warm water to which I have added some household ammonia.

I then swish the article in this solution for a few minutes and rinse thoroughly in warm water and hang to dry in a shady spot. I have found this works on black or any dark color as well as light colors.

MRS. JOHN KRENEK.

Ladies, this may be the answer to your certain type of material. However, I suggest that you test a hidden spot on your garment before putting ammonia or water on it to see if it's safe for your material.

HELOISE.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially housheold hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Kent State To Hold Line On Student Fees

KENT, Ohio (AP)—Kent State University's board of trustees has decided to hold the line, at least temporarily, on student fees.

Acting on advice from President George A. Bowman, the board voted to withhold action on a possible fee hike. But an increase in fees is inevitable for the 1964-65 academic year and may even be necessary for the school year starting next September, Bowman warned.

Adjournment Push Started By Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio legislature begins the grueling drive down the home stretch today — the last three or four weeks of the session, according to how the breaks go.

Legislative leaders apparently have given up all hope of winding up the working session on the original target date of June 14. They now think it either will be June 21 or June 28.

The Senate apparently will get down ot a vote next week on the $1.3 billion general appropriations bill to run the state government for the next two years. The House has approved it and Senate changes are likely to be minor.

Senate passage of the general appropriations bill generally signals the beginning of the end for any legislative session.

The Senate begins a five-day-a-week sessions this week in an effort to speed up the legislative process. Speaker Roger Cloud of the House has said he believes similar action by the House is not warranted now since most of the important legislation has been passed by the House and is now awaiting Senate approval.

Both houses return to work tonight, the House at 7:30 and the Senate at 8, to cut into the big backlog of pending bills. Both houses face tonight, and until the end of the session, lengthy calendars during the drive for adjournment.

One of the principal measures up for consideration tonight is a House bill to eliminate the necessity for motorists traveling in the opposite direction from a school bus on an undivided four-lane highways to stop for buses loading or unloading pupils outside municipalities. Under present law, traffic traveling in both directions must stop except for opposing traffic on a divided highway.

Another House bill proposes to enact a specific law against prison riots, including the holding of any person as a hostage by force, threat or violence. The penalty is 5 to 30 years in prison, after the original sentence ends.

Mother, Child Injured In Auto-Truck Mishap

SALEM — Mrs. Kathleen Henery, 21, of Columbiana R. D. 1 and her daughter, Darla, 2, were admitted to Salem City Hospital Saturday with injuries suffered in an auto-truck crash on Route 46, south of Route 165 in Mahoning County.

The State Highway Patrol at Canfield said Mrs. Henery's auto was involved in a head-on collision with a pickup truck driven by Harold Metzger, 55, of Canfield. The woman's auto drifted left of center while Mrs. Henery was wiping her child's nose, which she thought was bleeding, the patrol said.

Mrs. Henery suffered multiple abrasions of the face and forehead and her child suffered a fractured right collarbone and contusions. Metzger was treated for a cut lip and tooth damage and released for dental treatment.

Pastor At Wellsville Opens Sermon Series

The Rev. Bruce Davis of the Covenant United Presbyterian Church at Wellsville started a series of three sermons Sunday morning on the general theme, "Specific Issues of the General Assembly."

His first topic was "Racial Concern." The other two will be "Church and State" and "Ecumenical Movement."

Rev. Davis was one of four commissioners from the Steubenville Presbytery at the 1963 convention of United Presbyterian commissioners at Des Moines, Iowa. These were the issues discussed there.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Your hints are too numerous to remember and too helpful to forget. My solution: Bulletin boards, made from a sheet of note paper, cardboard, or a side cut from a grocery store box. These bulletin boards are placed at stretegic points in my home.

Example: Each day I go over your column and clip any hints that I may put to use immediately or in the future. These hints apply to my own personal little world.

An ironing board hint is taped or thumb-tacked to my bulletin board next to my iron.

Sewing hints are put on the board placed at my sewing machine.

Cleaning of appliances, etc., are put on the board inside my cabinet where the cleaning supplies are kept.

Salad hints are tacked on my spice and herb cabinet door.

Gardening hints cover my bulletin board in the garage where the tools are kept, and so on.

You have no idea how many times I refer to (and use) all this valuable information and simply because it is safely preserved on my various little bulletin boards.

MARGARET HOWARD.

DEAR HELOISE: For those who was traveling with babies, may I suggest that they buy the plastic-lined disposable diapers and secure them with cellophane tape rather than pins. This eliminates tearing the diapers and there is no worry about sticking the child with a pin while in a moving vehicle.

MRS. G. P. DARAKJIAN

Gals, I thought I had heard of using cellophane tape for just about everything. This suggestion is one of the dandiest hint that has ever come into this column. Bless her for helping us with our babies.

HELOISE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: A combination of lemon juice and fine salt, using the rind of the lemon as a pad, cleans my brass beautifully. Patience and sometimes more than one cleaning does the trick.

MRS. C. KLEIN.

DEAR HELOISE: When serving a half grapefruit, if you will cut a thin slice off the bottom, it will rest more securely on the plate and not topple.

CAROL LENTZ.

DEAR HELOISE: My son is 14 months old. He is at the point where he would much rather be in my scrub pail than in his playpen.

I just discovered that if I put all of his toys in a large paper bag, he will be happy pulling them out for at least a half hour longer than usual.

I put the toys in the paper bag in his playpen after he has gone to bed. When he wakes up that bag is very intriguing.

I keep another bag full of toys put away in the closet. Now and then I switch these two bags. Then all of the old toys are new to him again. By the way, these are not expensive toys. A lot of nice empty small boxes and plastic bottles are included.

BABY.

DEAR GALS: If you have a garbage disposal, some day take a flashlight, pull the rubber flaps back and look down into the disposal and see how close the grinding gadget is! Some disposals are closer to the sink than others.

Don't take a chance on grinding your finger away. Take your flashlight and a few minutes of your time, and it might have saved you not only a finger but a knuckle, too!

HELOISE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: One day when my sugar cannister was empty and I was whipping cream for pumpkin pie, I discovered that two heaping tablespoons of powdered sugar will add a lot of consistency of the cream. It will last another day by storing in the refrigerator. I always use it now to sweeten our whipped cream and love it.

MRS. D. H. SPRECKELS.

DEAR HELOISE: I get rid of "fishy odor" in my garments by merely putting the garment—or material—in comfortable warm water to which I have added some household ammonia.

I then swish the article in this solution for a few minutes and rinse thoroughly in warm water and hang to dry in a shady spot. I have found this works on black or any dark color as well as light colors.

MRS. JOHN KRENEK.

Ladies, this may be the answer to your certain type of material. However, I suggest that you test a hidden spot on your garment before putting ammonia or water on it to see if it's safe for your material.

HELOISE.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially housheold hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Kent State To Hold Line On Student Fees

KENT, Ohio (AP)—Kent State University's board of trustees has decided to hold the line, at least temporarily, on student fees.

Acting on advice from President George A. Bowman, the board voted to withhold action on a possible fee hike. But an increase in fees is inevitable for the 1964-65 academic year and may even be necessary for the school year starting next September, Bowman warned.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: The letter signed "Second Time Around" from the man who believes all first wives should be shot at 40, was quite a revelation.

You see, I am a first wife and my 40th birthday comes up in October. My husband also is having a sizzling affair with a woman about 20 years his junior, and I've been wracking my brain trying to figure out what to do about it.

Now the answer is clear. I'm supposed to hand my husband a gun and tell him to shoot me.

After all, what am I good for? I've already raised his four children, my figure isn't what it used to be and I must put on glasses to read the telephone book. I'm no longer able to help him in his business because he sold it last year — for a fantastic figure, I might add.

Now he plays golf, takes trips and spends his afternoons shopping with his girl friend.

I'm not much of a golfer and I can't travel with him because she travels with him. And as you know —three is a crowd.

Thank you for printing the man's letter, Ann. It provided me with just the right answer. Russian roulette, anyone? — FIRST WIFE.

-:-

Dear First Wife: Thank you for an interesting letter. I think you'll find the one that follows a revelation, too.

Home Wrecker

Dear Ann: I hope "Second Time Around" reads this. It may give him a clue as to what might be in store for him.

I'm not very bright but this is one subject I know well because I was one of those stupid fools who married a man old enough to be my father. Now I am paying for it — with interest.

Every young chicken who marries an older man will take an oath that she didn't break up his marriage she knows it was on the rocks when she came along.

Not me. I deliberately broke up this man's home and I admit it. I'll tell you what I have harvested after 10 years, and any girl who is flirting with the notion of doing as I did can expect just about the same.

The bloom is off the rose after three months. Then the old boy gets tired and wants to put on his bifocals and read the paper or watch TV every night. The romance factory is shut down. Forget about it.

He becomes insanely jealous of any man my age and wants constant reassurance that I'm not cheating on him. The Spanish Inquisition was a Sunday school picnic compared with what I go through about three times a week.

I can't have groceries, cleaning, newspapers, milk or packages delivered because he doesn't want "men" around here during the day. Charming, isn't it?

All our social friends are his friends — you can almost smell the embalming fluid. The people in my age group are bored stiff with his company and have stopped asking us over.

I could go on and on and on, but I think you get the idea by this time. One final word: About the 100th time someone mistakes the old geezer for your father you begin to realize maybe it wasn't worth it. —MADE MY OWN BED.

-:-

Dear Made Your Bed: Thank you for a fitting windup to a highly controversial subject. I received many pros and cons but yours (in terms of YOUR viewpoint) was among the most vivid and articulate.

Disarming Retort

Dear Ann: The letter from "Honor Bright" was particularly amusing because I, too, had a friend who used to tell me all sorts of dirt but she'd always start with, "Promise you won't whisper this to a soul."

One day I told her: "I have the biggest mouth in town. Please don't tell me anything you don't want repeated."

She was dumbfounded, and from that day to this she never has asked me not to repeat anything—and she tells me just as much as she always did. — BIG MOUTH.

Dear Big Mouth: Thanks for your proof that nothing disarms like the truth.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dear Made Your Bed: Thank you for a fitting windup to a highly controversial subject. I received many pros and cons but yours (in terms of YOUR viewpoint) was among the most vivid and articulate.

Disarming Retort

Dear Ann: The letter from "Honor Bright" was particularly amusing because I, too, had a friend who used to tell me all sorts of dirt but she'd always start with, "Promise you won't whisper this to a soul."

One day I told her: "I have the biggest mouth in town. Please don't tell me anything you don't want repeated."

She was dumbfounded, and from that day to this she never has asked me not to repeat anything—and she tells me just as much as she always did. — BIG MOUTH.

Dear Big Mouth: Thanks for your proof that nothing disarms like the truth.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Celebrezze, Hodges Explain Education Means New Duties

By The Associated Press

Two Kennedy administration cabinet members had basically similar messages for graduating college seniors at campuses on opposite sides of the state Sunday: The greater one's education, the greater his responsibilities to his fellow citizens.

Anthony J. Celebrezze, former Cleveland mayor who became secretary of Health, Education and Welfare almost a year ago, spoke at his alma mater, Ohio Northern University in Ada.

Celebrezze, who also received an honorary doctor of laws degree, told the 280 graduates:

"You are among a select group of Americans who have enjoyed the privilege of a college education."

The educated citizen is obligated to further the pursuit of learning, serve the public and uphold the law, said Celebrezze, a 1936 Ohio Northern graduate.

"We have the greatest opportunity history has ever afforded the human race—the opportunity to do something bold and creative in shaping a new world, a peaceful world, in which justice shall reign and spiritual and physical well-being prevail for all mankind," he said.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges told Mount Union College graduates in Alliance that they are part of "America's most important natural asset—trained and responsible intelligence."

Emphasizing the importance of education, Hodges said:

"Perhaps one of the most perplexing problems faced by the march of science in our country is that, to obtain work, a pair of willing hands is no longer adequate. To these hands must be added a skill or training or knowledge."

He concluded: "The world needs you. If you serve it well, you will find it a very rewarding place indeed."

Across the Ohio River in Huntington, W. Va., Secretary of the Army Cyrus Vance, speaking to 726 Marshall University graduates said that public service offers great challenges on a full or part-time basis.

The 782 graduates at Bowling Green State University heard the Ohio Methodist leader, Bishop Hazen G. Werner of Columbus, say that America's moral and spiritual values have been corrupted to the extent that "right and wrong have become questions of pleasure and profit."

Husband, 30, Quizzed In Middletown Killing

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Police held Sam Wilson, 30, today for investigation in the fatal shooting of his wife, Hazel, 27.

Officers said Wilson telephoned police about 4 a.m. Sunday that he had shot his wife in the head with a pistol he had believed unloaded. Mrs. Wilson, shot in the left ear, was dead when police arrived.

Wilson, who awaited police in front of his home, told them he and his wife were handling the pistol when it went off.

Children Play Major Role In 'Space' Race

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Children play the most important role in a family's decision on when and how to create more living space within a home.

A young married couple buying a house tend to think in terms of their infant child.

The arrangement of the rooms must be suitable for convenient handling of the baby, both during the day and at night. Will there be a place for a crib and a playpen? Will mother be able to take care of her chores, especially those in the kitchen, and keep an eye on the baby at the same time?

Even if the answer to these and similar questions is yes, the couple's thinking and planning must not end there. They have to look ahead — and not too far ahead — to the time when the youngster will need a play area larger and less confining than a playpen.

If the child's bedroom is large enough, its conversion into a day-playroom, night-bed-room is not difficult. But a special playroom often is the only answer. Pop sometimes discovers that this means the end of his den.

As the child grows up, his or her housing needs change, especially during the teen-age period. A boy and his friends can put 10 years' wear and tear on furniture in one month.

A girl and her friends simply can't discuss that new boy down the block while mom and pop are present. And if the offspring, male or female, is an advocate of rock-n-roll or any of its affiliated musical mishmashes, things can get a little ticky where privacy is conspicuous by its absence.

It is then that the parents decide very definitely, with little prompting from the children, that there must be a recreation room.

Oh, sure, it will be for everybody in the family. That's understood from the start. But all concerned know its primary purpose is to separate the parents from the children at particular times.

When a married couple begins with a big bankroll, they have only to get a large enough house at the beginning to take care of all stages of the children's development.

But most couples must look for a home which they can afford and yet which has enough expansion area to make the necessary changes later on. This often is easier said than done, but it's possible if the objective — usage five or 10 years in the future—is kept in mind during the house-hunting.

Sudden Attack Claims Singer Skinnay Ennis

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Band leader Skinnay Ennis, 56, who rose to fame as a singer with comedian Bob Hope, died late Sunday night after suffering an attack in a restaurant.

Doctors at the Beverly Hills first aid station pronounced him dead on arrival at 11:18 p.m.

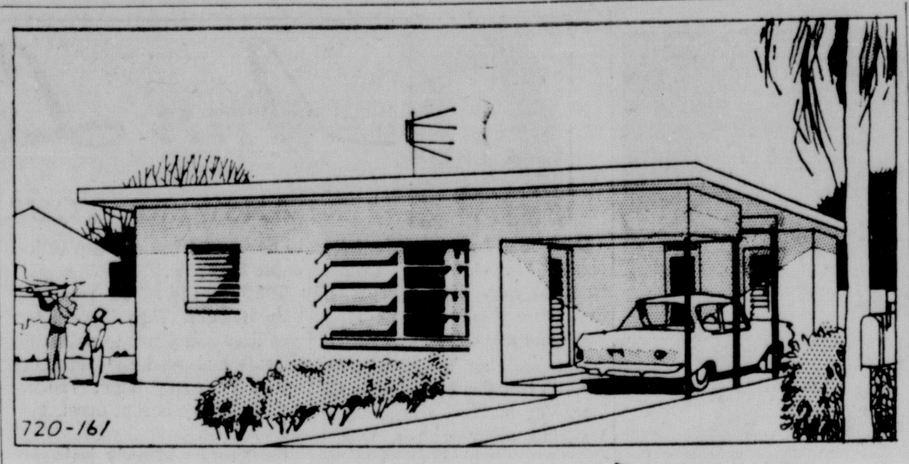

Ennis, whose almost forgotten real name was Edgar C. Ennis, was stricken while dining in a restaurant.

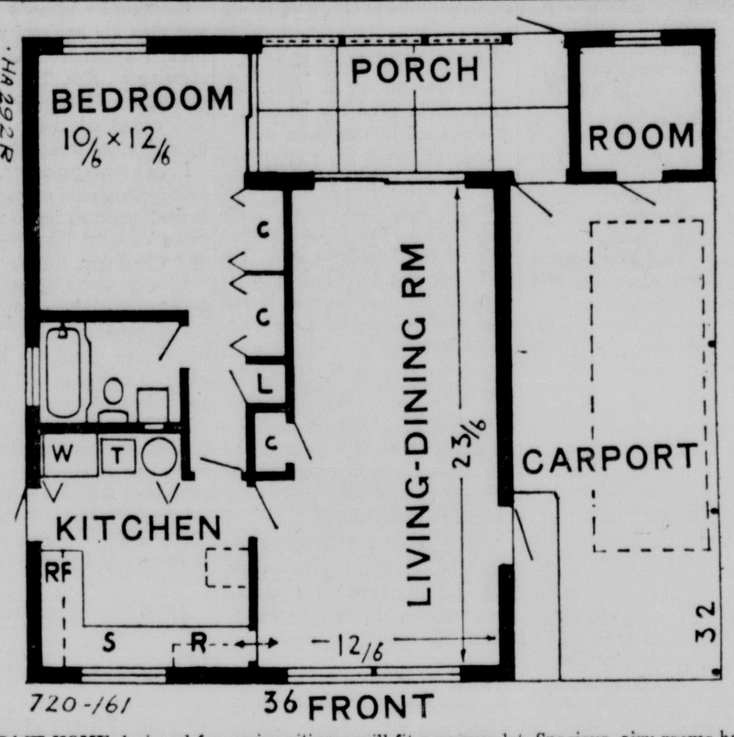

Officer T. M. McCarthy, flagged down by a parking lot attendant, found Ennis lying on the floor. He applied external heart massage until an ambulance arrived.

Ennis and his orchestra had been playing at the Statler Hilton in downtown Los Angeles the past five years.

Ennis, whose nickname originally was "Skinny," changed it to "Skinnay" after it was misspelled that way on the label of a record early in his career.

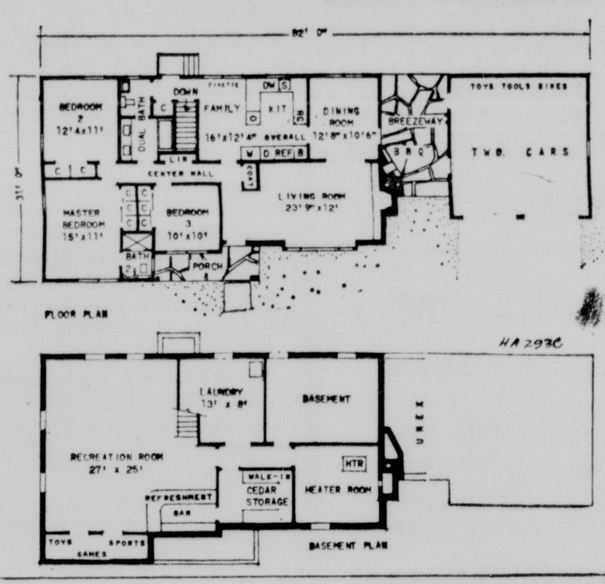

In 1961 railroads used 3,382,000,000 gallons of diesel oil; 93,570,000 gallons of fuel oil; and 1,625,000,000 kilowat hours of electricity to power their locomotives.

COMPACT HOME designed for senior citizens will fit a narrow lot. Spacious, airy rooms have been provided, adequate closet space and a room for garden tools and hobby materials. Construction costs also were considered by architect Jan Reiner, 1000 52nd St. North, St. Petersburg 10, Fla. Walls and ceilings and plaster floors are terrazzo. A sliding glass door separates the living room and 8 by 16 porch. The exterior is stucco, with shed roof topped with tar and gravel finish and aluminum windows. Area of Plan HA292R is 720 square feet.

LONG RANCH lines highlight this lovely home, with its attached breezeway and two-car garage. Area for plan HA 293C is 1,392 square feet and the architect is Lester Cohen, Room 75, 117 West 48th Street New York 36, N.Y. There are three bedrooms, two baths and a huge family room-kitchen in this comfortaule house, with a fine fireplace in the living room and a barbecue fireplace behind it on the breezeway side.

Mrs. Eichmann Goes Back Home With Son

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The widow of Adolf Eichmann returned to Argentina Sunday to live, she said, "in the small house he built with his own hands."

Vera Eichmann, 55, and her son Haasi, 7, came home a year and two days after Israel executed her husband, convicted of playing a major role in the mass killing of Jews in World War II.

Did It Hurt, Hurt?

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP) — Harold Hurt caught a whopper while out fishing near here but he wasn't happy about it. What troubled the 20-year-old fisherman was that the whopper he caught was himself. A fishing hook was removed from Hurt's upper lip at the Memorial Hospital emergency room.

Steel Demand Drops From April's Peak

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel demand has fallen from the peak it reached in late April, but there has been no letup in consumption, the magazine Steel said today. It explained that bookings have dropped only because of a slowdown in inventory buying.

"Nowhere is steel being consumed at a faster rate than in the auto industry," the metal-working weekly said. "If automakers build the 655,000 cars they've scheduled for June, their second quarter output will be the second largest ever for that period: 2,070,000 vs. 2,128,000 in 1955. Their first half production of four million cars will be second only to the 4.26 million built in the first half of 1955."

A slowing down in steel production is expected this month because of the prospects for a labor settlement in the industry and the upcoming vacation season, the publication said.

It added, however, that heavy shipments of finished steel are seen for June. Shipments will be close to the estimated eight million tons shipped in May, regardless of what happens on the labor front, Steel said.

June production probably won't equal the 11.5 million ingot tons produced in May and may even drop 20 per cent below the May level to 9.2 million tons it added.

The magazine said production this week will be about the same as the estimated output of 2,630,000 tons last week, when there was a gain of about 4,000 tons over that of the previous week.

"Ingot operations have been averaging around 85 per cent of unofficial capacity the last couple of weeks, with output at the highest level since March, 1926," Steel said.

Production for the first five months this year totaled 48.9 million tons of ingots, compared with 47.4 million tons in the corresponding period of last year and 47.5 million tons for the first five months of 1955, the year in which production reached a record 117 million tons, the publication said.

Steel's price composite on the No. 1 heavy melting grade of steelmaking scrap dropped $1.34 to $27.83 a gross ton last week.

Did It Hurt, Hurt?

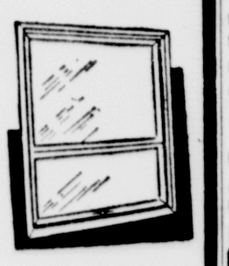

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP) — Harold Hurt caught a whopper while out fishing near here but he wasn't happy about it. What troubled the 20-year-old fisherman was that the whopper he caught was himself. A fishing hook was removed from Hurt's upper lip at the Memorial Hospital emergency room.

Pergola Adds Lift To Yard

PORTLAND, Ore. — Is your backyard just a flat, uninteresting, wide open ball park with acres of lawn to mow? Yes? Well, then, perhaps some remodeling is in order.

No family has to suffer the boredom of a monotonous backyard—not when the cure is so simple and low in cost.

What is needed are vertical lines to contrast with the yard's natural horizontal lines. You can achieve these and at the same time give your yard real charm and distinction by building a pergola along the edge of the patio. If you don't already have a patio —create one, shaping its outer edge into a soft, fluid curve for eye appeal.

The pergola should extend over the patio's edge into the lawn area, following the line of the patio, and this saucy structure will serve a double purpose. It will avoid the harsh juncture between paving or deck and the lawn, as well as provide the verticality to eliminate that flat lot look.

A pergola is essentially just two parallel rows of posts joined lengthwise with beams and topped with a decorative trellis crown spanning the columns. The posts can be spaced as much as 10 feet apart. End posts should be joined with a cross beam and be cross - braced for stability.

Beams supporting the trellis crown are run down the two rows of posts. Doubled 1-by-6s are flexible enough to use for the curved line, and a pair of 1-by-6s should be bolted on either side of the posts, clasping them. Doubled 1-by-6s means that one 1-by-6 is applied directly over the other.

The trellis cross pieces can be 2-by-6 or 2-by-8 inch material. They are mounted on edge and spaced far enough apart to create a skeletal effect. Ends of the cross pieces should be extended three feet beyond the supporting structure and can be cut to a decorative point or prow shape.

Generally Douglas fir is specified for yard structures such as a pergola. It is a tough, durable wood, but easy to work. For the most pleasing appearance and ease of maintenance, let the fir pergola weather naturally to a soft silver gray. It takes about a year, but the weathering process can be hastened somewhat by spraying the wood occasionally with the garden hose.

TIRED OF A FLAT, uninteresting backyard? Add a saucy pergola like this and you'll see all the difference in the world. Gently curving pergola separates a patio from lawn area. Structure looks intricate, but is easy to build with common grades and sizes of fir lumber.

Mentor Boy Rescued From Auto In Lagoon

MENTOR, Ohio (AP)—Fourteen year-old Martin E. Duffy Jr. was involved in an eight-minute life-and-death drama Sunday night. He came out of it wet, but in good condition.

The episode started when Martin went to stow the fishing tackle in his father's car. The vehicle suddenly lurched forward and rolled 30 feet into the Mentor Lagoons, a mile-long body of water off Lake Erie.

His father, a Cleveland fire captain, and an uncle dived in and saved the boy, who was floating, unconscious, in the car. The father gave his son mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

The elder Duffy said that his son must have bumped the gear shift into neutral as he got into the front seat of the car.

Rhodes Asked To Set Study Of Rail Merger

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Cleveland group says it has asked Gov. James A. Rhodes to order a survey of the impact the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads would have on Ohio.

Robert E. Swert, interim chairman of the Committee for the Preservation of Our Railway Service here, said that a letter sent to Rhodes noted that Ohio would be hardest hit of 13 states affected by such a merger. Swert said the study was requested to determine what he called adverse effects of the consolidation on the governor's industrial expansion plan.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures are expected to average 3 to 6 degrees above normal. Normal high is 76-78 and normal low is 54-58. Only minor changes from day to day. Precipitation will average around ½ inch with occasional rain east portion tonight and scattered showers over the area during the latter part of the week.

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO —Temperatures are expected to average 2 to 4 degrees above normal. Normal high is 77-82, normal low 55-58. Only minor changes during the week. Rainfall will average one-fourth inch or less in scattered showers about the middle of the week.

Glass Cutters Return To Jobs After Strike

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—Approximately 150 glass cutters are back at work in Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.'s plant here. Their one-day walkout ended Saturday.

A contract dispute between PPG and the Window Glass Cutters League of America was settled Saturday in Louisville, Ky. Plants in West Virginia and Oklahome, as well as the Mount Vernon plant, had continued to operate despite picket lines. Details of the new one-year contract were not announced immediately.

Audit Slated On City Funds Paid To State

City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate said today he has arranged with the Workmen's Compensation Service Co. of Cleveland to make an audit and an analysis of Workmen's Compensation premiums paid by the municipality to the state in the last two years to find if the city was billed accurately.

Applegate said such an audit never has been made on the city's books and he feels it may disclose that refunds are due the municipality. Ohio employers are charged premiums for the compensation fund based upon claims paid out to their employes.

In 1961, the city's premium billing was based on $2.44 per $100 unit of payroll, Applegate explained. In 1962, the charge was reduced to $2.19 per $100, he said.

Effective last Jan. 1, the charge was dropped to $1.95 per $100, Applegate said, adding: "We are showing good progress and a good safety program is necessary to keep these premium costs down."

Applegate said the Cleveland concern furnished him with the names of other Ohio cities for which it performed audits. He said he has received reports so far from five of the cities showing the results.

The City of Columbus reported it has received refunds totaling $184,979 and its premium rate has been reduced from $2.81 to $1.56 per $100 of payroll outlay, Applegate said. The City of Portsmouth received a refund of $11,000, while $9,091 was returned to Hamilton. Lima received a $37,000 refund, Applegate added.

"In the interest of economy, these refund figures cannot be ignored," Applegate commented. He said he will announce the result when the local audit has been completed.

Adopted Children Not Amicable

Many parents of an only child, three or four years of age or older, supposing they have many problems in managing him, believe these problems will decrease or disappear if they adopt a younger girl or boy. These parents may be disillusioned, especially during the first months or years following the adoption. From a mother of New York State came this letter: "We have a son, 4½, whom we adopted when he was 22 months old. He is strong and tall for his age.

Dr. Garry Meyers

"We felt that the adoption had worked out well enough that last week we brought home a pretty blonde, blue-eyed girl of 2 years 8 months to be his sister. I read to our son twice a day and will read to her, too, as soon as things are settled.

—:—

"HOWEVER, I need help in fitting this child and my boy into more amicable relations. I have set aside all the other jobs that I can in order to give them both a lot of time, and my husband and mother are helping, too, as much as they can, but they both work.

"My son attends an excellent nursery school three mornings a week and plays well with some of the children there.

"He will play with his sister well for a short time, then shoves her until she falls down. He waves his hands before her face until she cries. He runs by her and takes a small poke in passing. He walks by her too close and shoves her out of the way. If I put one on each side of me to do something, he crowds around between us.

"I have tried just to separate them, but I must remain with her, as she is too small to leave alone for long.

"She follows him almost like a puppy at times and does not want to keep away from him, even though she may whimper every few minutes at his teasing or pushing."

MY REPLY in part:

These two children act toward each other about as one would expect them to act. Naturally, each one craves for attention and affection and it's hard for the boy to share these with this newcomer after he has long enjoyed having all of them alone.

Wonderful that you read to him and that he is attending a nursery school. Try to get him with some other children of his own age, a few at a time. When such playmates are in your home, find ways to amuse the little sister, who won't be a good playmate for them.

Also teach her not to mess up his things.

While you may guide them at playing together with a set of blocks, even at taking turns with a few playthings, each child should have a few things of his very own. Work hard to teach them to respect each other's ownership of these possessions.

When you see him deliberately pushing or hitting her, not in self-defense, turn him over your knee and smack him on his bare thighs soundly. As soon as he has learned well the meaning of "No", you should have him sit in a certain place, unamused, where you can see him for 15 minutes. Smack him if he gets down too soon.

ALSO YOU may have to use pain to teach Sister not to snatch or mess up his things until she is ready to profit from chair-sitting punishment.

Make her bedtime half an hour earlier than his. During this time one of you parents, especially Dad should read to him and make things with him. Often, by day, rock and cuddle him for a few minutes. Others should, also. Praise him honestly, especially when he is kind to his sister. Don't look for quick improvements. Be patient and glad when you see slight gains.

Yanks Bow Twice To Indian Lefties; Orioles Lose Again

McDowell, Kralick In Twin Sweep

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's mighty mite, two left-handers with losing records, a rangy belter for a last-place team and a slumping slugger played leading roles Sunday as American League also-rans toppled the big boys.

Albie Pearson, the 5-foot-5, 140-pound dynamo, whacked a homer and two singles for the Los Angeles Angels, who made it a three-game sweep over Baltimore and dealt the Orioles their fifth straight loss, 8-2.

Southpaws Jack Kralick and Sam McDowell pitched the Cleveland Indians to twin victories over the New York Yankees, 5-0 and 7-2. Chuck Hinton's two-run homer in the 10th inning powered Washington's last-place Senators over Kansas City 6-4. And .230 hitter Rocky Colavito singled home a ninth inning run for the Detroit Tigers that cooled off the Minnesota Twins 7-6.

In other AL action, the Chicago White Sox rapped Boston 10-0 behind Juan Pizarro's four-hit pitching after the Red Sox had taken the opener 11-9 on a homer by Carl Yastrzemski.

The results left the Yanks holding a lead of five percentage points over Baltimore, with Chicago another eight points back in third and Kansas City three games out in fourth.

Pearson batted in three runs and scored two for the Angels as they winged the Orioles.

Kralick pitched a two-hit gem in the Cleveland opener, facing only 30 Yanks and not allowing a one as far as second base.

McDowell spaced nine hits in the second game and was chiefly supported by Fred Whitfield, who homered, doubled and singled.

Hinton had a triple in addition to his deciding homer against the A's while Don Lock of the Senators counted a homer among his four hits.

Pizarro, now 4-2, not only fired a shutout but also banged a two-run double and a single in the White Sox' second game attack.

Mets Upset Pittsburgh; Mays Hits 3

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who said the Giants were carrying Willie Mays as a "glove man?"

Wonderful Willie made a liar of his .254 batting average Sunday when he hit three home runs in San Francisco's 6-4 victory over the menacing St. Louis Cardinals.

Mays gave signs of awakening from his spring snooze when he blasted a two-run homer off loser Ernie Broglio in the first inning. He followed with No. 9 and No. 10 in the eighth and ninth.

The Giants' victory snapped a five-game Cardinal winning streak and dropped the Cards two full games off the San Francisco pace.

Cincinnati dropped Los Angeles 3½ games back of the Giants by scoring five unearned runs with the help of two Dodger errors in a 5-2 decision. It was the Dodgers' fourth straight defeat.

Houston put together four successive singles in the 17th inning to win the longest game of the year, a 4-hour-46-minute struggle with Milwaukee, 3-1. Carl Warwick, Rusty Staub, Jim Campbell and Al Spangler contributed the singles that gave Hal Woodeshick the nod over Ron Piche.

The Phillies divided a pair with Chicago. Cal McLish won his fifth straight for the Phils in the opener 5-2 with the aid of Jim Lemon's first National League Homer. The Cubs took the second 3-2 with the help of a two-run by Billy Williams.

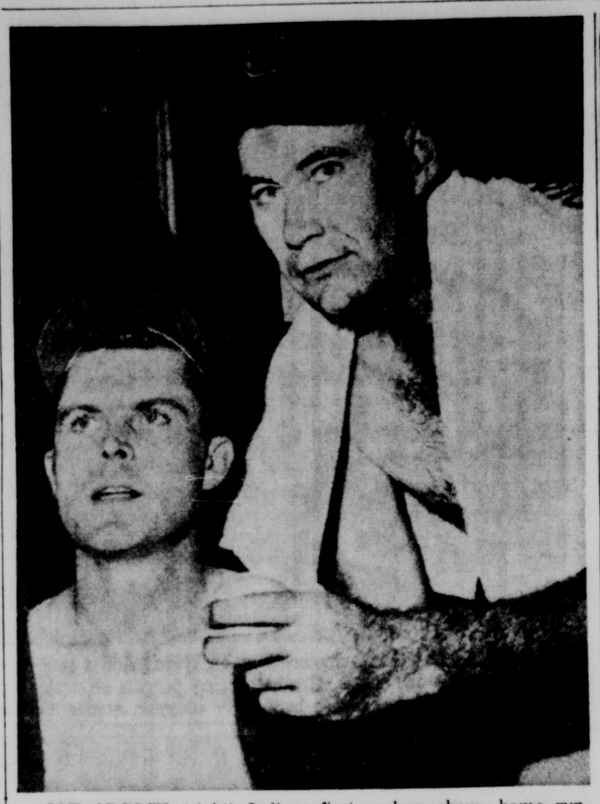

The lowly New York Mets rose up and grabbed two from Pittsburgh, each in 10 innings, 2-1 and 4-3. Jim Hickman's homer won the second, a game in which Tracy Stallard was knocked out in the seventh after six no-hit innings. They took the first when Jerry Lynch collided with Bill Virdon on Ron Hunt's fly ball and jarred the ball loose, letting Rod Kanehl score with the winning run.

Juan Marichal won his eighth for the Giants with the help of May's bombing and Orlando Cepeda's 10th homer although Bob Bolin had to finish up in the ninth.

Jim O'Toole became the first major leaguer to win nine games when he beat the Dodgers. He, too, needed help in the ninth. With two out and two on, Bill Henry struck out Ron Fairly to end it.

Slow Pitch Managers Will Meet Tuesday

All managers of teams in the Thompson Park Slow Pitch League are requested to attend an important meeting Tuesday at 6 p. m. at the pool. Schedules will be distributed at the meeting and rules discussed. Bob Hedmond and Jim Harris, park supervisors, will be in charge of the 10-team league which will open next week.

JOE ADCOCK (right) Indians first sacker, shows home run ball that he hit in the sixth inning with two aboard to Jack Kralich. Kralich pitched a two-hit shutout against the New York Yankees Sunday at Cleveland in the first game. The tribe won both games of the doubleheader, 5-0 and 7-2. (UPI Telephoto)

Friendly Entry Routs Foe, 18-5

The Friendly Merchants reeled off their third straight victory in the County - City League Sunday with an 18-5 rout over Lisbon on the losers' diamond.

After grabbing an 11-0 lead at one time, the East Liverpool entry scored seven runs in the ninth frame.

Agnew was the winning pitcher and racked up 17 strikeouts while giving up seven hits. Manager John Andrason's nine unleased a 17-hit attack and took advantage of four Lisbon errors.

Gary Berhar, who starred for Beaver Local High School stroked five hits in six strips to the plate including a triple. Six, Eckles Frasier and Ron Hildebrand all had two hits each while the veteran campaigner Bob Gessford legged out a triple.

Bush homered for Lisbon while Bacon and Crosser collected a pair of hits each. Winstock was the losing hurler.

In other games, Negley topped Salem, 9-1, while East Palestine bested Clarkson, 6-2.

Wellsville Drops 3rd Tri-County Tilt, 3-2

A base on balls forced in the winning run in the eighth inning as Wellsville dropped a tough 3-2 decision at Sebring Sunday in a Tri-County League contest.

The loss left Wellsville with a 5-3 record.

John Martin staked Wellsville to a 2-1 lead in the third inning when he belted a home run with a teammate on base.

Sebring came back to tie the game a 2-2 in the sixth inning then scored the winning marker in the eighth.

Jack Call was the losing hurler going all the way for Wellsville while S. Wagner was the winner. Both teams collected seven hits with Martin having two safeties for Wellsville.

Wellsville will play host to Carrollton Wednesday.

In other games, Jewett downed Carrollton, 13-10, Salineville blanked Irondale, 5-0 and Kilgore nipped Bergholz, 7-6, in 10 innings.

4 Countries Advance In Cup Matches

By The Associated Press

Soviet Russia, Spain, Great Britain and Yugoslavia have advanced through another round of the European Zone Davis Cup tennis eliminations and France is expected to join the group today.

France meets Brazil in the final two singles matches after taking a 2-1 lead in their series with a doubles victory.

The Spaniards eliminated Italy Sunday, taking a clinching 3-1 lead in the best-of-5 series at Barcelona when Manuel Santana downed veteran Italian ace Fausto Gardini 6-1, 6-1, 10-8. In the fifth match, Juan Couder of Spain was one game away from whipping Nicola Pietrangeli of Italy when darkness caused a suspension of play. Plans were to complete the match today.

In the other matches, Russia turned back Chile 4-1 and set up a quarter-final test with Great Britain, a 5-0 winner over Belgium at Brussels; and Yugoslavia completed a 5-0 rout of Austria at Zagreb.

Mickey Wins, Sets Record At Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Mickey Wright stowed away her sixth golf tournament of the year Sunday when she shot an eagle and birdie sprayed 4-under-par 69 to take top money in the $8,000 Babe Zaharias Open and move almost half-way to the all-time money-winning record for women.

She also broke the tournament record of 210 for 54 holes by one stroke, tied her own consecutive tournament victory record at four and needs only five more first places to trim her own record of 10 tournament triumphs in a year which she shares with Petsy Rawls.

There are 23 tournaments left for her to attain all of her goals and the first one is at Chattanooga, Tenn., where the women's golf tour stops Friday.

All told she has won 45 tournaments in eight years of campaigning and that's more than any other woman ever has won.

She brought her total winnings this year to $11,115 by bagging first money of $1,250 in the Zaharias. She is almost $4,000 ahead of second place Marilynn Smith.

The tour freshman, little Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., finished second with a 73 for 214.

Pastrano Is Light Heavy Champ

Johnson's Manager Feels His Boy Got Bum Decision

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Hollering he was robbed, Pat Olivieri manager of Harold Johnson, today demanded a rematch for his dethroned light heavyweight champion with Willie Pastrano.

Pastrano, a 1-to-5 underdog, won the championship Saturday night in the boxing upset of the year with a split 15-round decision over Johnson. The fight was nationally televised from the Las Vegas Convention Center.

"I'm not saying that the underworld dictated the decision," said the silver-haired Olivieri. "But the betting was 5-1 and 6-1 for my boy and they let the underdog win. What do you think?"

There was no verbal or written rematch agreement, Pastrano's manager, Angelo Dundee, said. Olivieri said he would ask Emile Bruneau, chairman of the World Boxing Association championship committee, to give Johnson a rematch with 90 days.

Referee Jimmy Olivas scored the fight 69-68 and judge Harry Kraufe 69-67, both for Pastrano. Judge John Romero had it 69-68 for Johnson. The Associated Press had it 70-69 for Pastrano.

It was 7-5 that Pastrano wouldn't last the route against the 34-year-old champion from Philadelphia who had not been whipped in almost eight years.

But Pastrano outboxed and outfoxed Johnson in a fight that was far better than many anticipated.

There were no knockdowns, but Johnson nailed Willie with right smashes in the fifth and 13th rounds that made his knees sag.

Johnson received $37,000 and Pastrano $21,250, the largest purse of his 13-year career.

Pastrano weighed 174, Johnson 173½.

500 Driver Dies On Ohio Speedway

NEW BREMEN, Ohio (AP) — Automobile racing was in Allen Crowe's blood. He proved that by coming back from four major crashes in little more than a year. The fifth, at New Bremen Speedway on Sunday, killed him.

Just three days earlier, Crowe went after thousands of dollars in prize money before upward of 200,000 spectators at the Indianapolis 500-mile Memorial Day classic. His car hit a well on the 48th lap, forcing him out for a 27th place finish worth $5,700. But he wasn't injured badly.

Here, Crowe was going for relative "peanuts" with a crowd of 5,217 looking on at a half-mile dirt track. His sprint car struck a wall on the 11th lap of the 30-lap feature. It flipped over, skidded upside down, then righted itself with Crowe unconscious.

The 34-year-old Springfield, Ill., competitor was already badly injured, his chest crushed. But two of his rivals couldn't dodge his disabled car and plowed into it, giving Crowe another severe jolt. Two other cars nicked the pileup.

None of the other drivers was injured, although the car of Chuck Engel of Reynoldsburg, Ohio, flipped over.

Crowe's car caught fire but two drivers not competing in the feature dashed out and pulled him away. Shortly afterward, the flames shot high.

Crowe was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton. He never regained consciousness and died a couple of hours later.

He leaves a widow and three youngsters.

Another fellow who had tough luck Thursday at Indianapolis, Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz. won Sunday's U.S. Automobile Club event. He is the season leader in USAC point standings for sprint races. Crowe had been No. 2 in the standings.

McCluskey was running third at Indianapolis when he spun out on winner Parnelli Jones' final lap. He had to settle for 15th place.

Jones withdrew his scheduled entry here Sunday because of commitments following his Indianapolis victory. Chuck Hulse of Downey, Calif., eighth in the 500, and Don Branson of Champaign, Ill., fifth in the big one, finished 2-3 behind McCluskey Sunday.

ALLEN CROWE
500 Driver Dies In Ohio.

Crowe's death was the second among USAC drivers this year. Last year there were seven—including one at New Bremen Speedway when Don Davis, 29, of Tucson, Ariz., was injured fatally Aug. 5.

Laughlin Wins Sunday's Event At Country Club

Jim Laughlin scored 28 points to win Sunday's par - birdie - eagle contest and T. H. Kashuba and Bob Gilmore tied for honors in Saturday's selective nine hole play at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Runnerup to Laughlin Sunday was Bill Hocking Jr. with 20 points while Bob Patterson had 23 and Everson Hall and Kahuba 22 each. The second division went to Grant Stover with 20 points.

Dr. R. J. Kinsey and Bill Pickin tied for second place with 20 each in Saturday's event while Don E. Smith and J. W. Batey had 31 apiece.

The Second division went to Dr. A. A. Turner with 28. Lawton Howell's 29 was second and W.A. Porter finished with 32.

New Record For Winner In 600 Race

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A blown tire and an empty gas tank figured in the last minute heroics here Sunday as Fred Lorenzen won the World 600 stock car race at a record 132.417 miles per hour.

Lorenzen, 29-year-old ex-carpenter from Elmhurst, Ill., came home free when Junior Johnson, the leader and pace-setter, blew a tire with slightly over three laps to go.

With Johnson's Chevrolet in the pits for a new tire and the rest of the field strung out at least a full lap behind, Lorenzen breezed into Lap No. 398 of the 400-lap race. But the handsome, curly-haired veteran found himself in trouble, too. His fuel gauge registered empty.

"I wiggled her back and fourth to slosh more gas into the line," said the happy Lorenzen later. "I managed to make lap No. 399 with power, but I simply threw her out of gear and coasted the last lap."

The victory over the 1½ mile high-banked Charlotte Motor Speedway, which packed an estimated 60,000 into its sunlit environs, was worth $27,780 to the Ford-driving Lorenzen.

BASEBALL HEROES

BATTING — Willie Mays, Giants, hit three home runs and drove in four runs in San Francisco's 6-4 victory over St. Louis.

PITCHING — Jack Kralick and Sam McDowell, Indians, pair of Cleveland southpaws cooled off hot Yankees in doubleheader sweep 5-0, 7-2. Kralcik posted two-hitter in opener and McDowell spaced nine hits in second.

Berra Won't Be Pitching Against Mets

NEW YORK (AP) — There is absolutely no truth to the report that Yogi Berra is going to pitch for the New York Yankees tonight in their Goliath-David match with the New York Mets for charity.

Ralph Houk gave the word in Cleveland, before his Yanks took it on the chin twice from the Indians, that Marshall Bridges from his bullpen crew would work for the Yanks. With the double loss in Cleveland and Baltimore next on the schedule Tuesday, the Yanks are in a press for pitching. The Mets also will reach into their bullpen, starting left-handed reliever Ken MacKenzie.

The return of Casey Stengel to Yankee Stadium for the first time since he was turned out of a job as too old after losing the 1960 World Series, was enough to insure a bumper turnout of "I Hate The Yankees" fans.

Former All-American For Yale Dies At 63

PLEASANTVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—Century Milstead, all-America tackle on Yale's 1923 unbeaten and untied football team, died Sunday, apparently the victim of a coronary attack. He was 63.

Milstead, given his first name because he was born on the first day of 20th century, Jan. 1, 1900, was found by his wife at about 4 a.m. in the basement workshop of his home.

After being named to the All-America by the late Walter Camp, Milstead played professional football with the New York Giants and then returned to Yale as an assistant coach for several years.

Yanks Bow Twice To Indian Lefties; Orioles Lose Again

McDowell, Kralick In Twin Sweep

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's mighty mite, two left-handers with losing records, a rangy belter for a last-place team and a slumping slugger played leading roles Sunday as American League also-rans toppled the big boys.

Albie Pearson, the 5-foot-5, 140-pound dynamo, whacked a homer and two singles for the Los Angeles Angels, who made it a three-game sweep over Baltimore and dealt the Orioles their fifth straight loss, 8-2.

Southpaws Jack Kralick and Sam McDowell pitched the Cleveland Indians to twin victories over the New York Yankees, 5-0 and 7-2. Chuck Hinton's two-run homer in the 10th inning powered Washington's last-place Senators over Kansas City 6-4. And .230 hitter Rocky Colavito singled home a ninth inning run for the Detroit Tigers that cooled off the Minnesota Twins 7-6.

In other AL action, the Chicago White Sox rapped Boston 10-0 behind Juan Pizarro's four-hit pitching after the Red Sox had taken the opener 11-9 on a homer by Carl Yastrzemski.

The results left the Yanks holding a lead of five percentage points over Baltimore, with Chicago another eight points back in third and Kansas City three games out in fourth.

Pearson batted in three runs and scored two for the Angels as they winged the Orioles.

Kralick pitched a two-hit gem in the Cleveland opener, facing only 30 Yanks and not allowing a one as far as second base.

McDowell spaced nine hits in the second game and was chiefly supported by Fred Whitfield, who homered, doubled and singled.

Hinton had a triple in addition to his deciding homer against the A's while Don Lock of the Senators counted a homer among his four hits.

Pizarro, now 4-2, not only fired a shutout but also banged a two-run double and a single in the White Sox' second game attack.

Mets Upset Pittsburgh; Mays Hits 3

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who said the Giants were carrying Willie Mays as a "glove man?"

Wonderful Willie made a liar of his .254 batting average Sunday when he hit three home runs in San Francisco's 6-4 victory over the menacing St. Louis Cardinals.

Mays gave signs of awakening from his spring snooze when he blasted a two-run homer off loser Ernie Broglio in the first inning. He followed with No. 9 and No. 10 in the eighth and ninth.

The Giants' victory snapped a five-game Cardinal winning streak and dropped the Cards two full games off the San Francisco pace.

Cincinnati dropped Los Angeles 3½ games back of the Giants by scoring five unearned runs with the help of two Dodger errors in a 5-2 decision. It was the Dodgers' fourth straight defeat.

Houston put together four successive singles in the 17th inning to win the longest game of the year, a 4-hour-46-minute struggle with Milwaukee, 3-1. Carl Warwick, Rusty Staub, Jim Campbell and Al Spangler contributed the singles that gave Hal Woodeshick the nod over Ron Piche.

The Phillies divided a pair with Chicago. Cal McLish won his fifth straight for the Phils in the opener 5-2 with the aid of Jim Lemon's first National League Homer. The Cubs took the second 3-2 with the help of a two-run by Billy Williams.

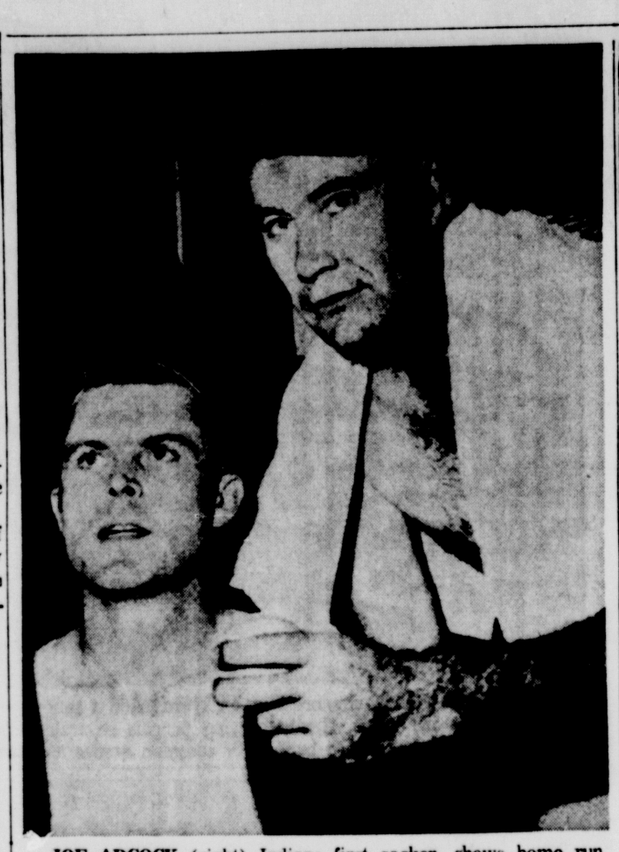

The lowly New York Mets rose up and grabbed two from Pittsburgh, each in 10 innings, 2-1 and 4-3. Jim Hickman's homer won the second, a game in which Tracy Stallard was knocked out in the seventh after six no-hit innings. They took the first when Jerry Lynch collided with Bill Virdon on Ron Hunt's fly ball and jarred the ball loose, letting Rod Kanehl score with the winning run.

Juan Marichal won his eighth for the Giants with the help of May's bombing and Orlando Cepeda's 10th homer although Bob Bolin had to finish up in the ninth.

Jim O'Toole became the first major leaguer to win nine games when he beat the Dodgers. He, too, needed help in the ninth. With two out and two on, Bill Henry struck out Ron Fairly to end it.

Slow Pitch Managers Will Meet Tuesday

All managers of teams in the Thompson Park Slow Pitch League are requested to attend an important meeting Tuesday at 6 p. m. at the pool. Schedules will be distributed at the meeting and rules discussed. Bob Hedmond and Jim Harris, park supervisors, will be in charge of the 10-team league which will open next week.

Friendly Entry Routs Foe, 18-5

The Friendly Merchants reeled off their third straight victory in the County - City League Sunday with an 18-5 rout over Lisbon on the losers' diamond.

After grabbing an 11-0 lead at one time, the East Liverpool entry scored seven runs in the ninth frame.

Agnew was the winning pitcher and racked up 17 strikeouts while giving up seven hits. Manager John Andrason's nine unleased a 17-hit attack and took advantage of four Lisbon errors.

Gary Berhar, who starred for Beaver Local High School stroked five hits in six strips to the plate including a triple. Six, Eckles Frasier and Ron Hildebrand all had two hits each while the veteran campaigner Bob Gessford legged out a triple.

Bush homered for Lisbon while Bacon and Crosser collected a pair of hits each. Winstock was the losing hurler.

In other games, Negley topped Salem, 9-1, while East Palestine bested Clarkson, 6-2.

Mickey Wins, Sets Record At Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Mickey Wright stowed away her sixth golf tournament of the year Sunday when she shot an eagle and birdie sprayed 4-under-par 69 to take top money in the $8,000 Babe Zaharias Open and move almost half-way to the all-time money-winning record for women.

She also broke the tournament record of 210 for 54 holes by one stroke, tied her own consecutive tournament victory record at four and needs only five more first places to trim her own record of 10 tournament triumphs in a year which she shares with Petsy Rawls.

There are 23 tournaments left for her to attain all of her goals and the first one is at Chattanooga, Tenn., where the women's golf tour stops Friday.

All told she has won 45 tournaments in eight years of campaigning and that's more than any other woman ever has won.

She brought her total winnings this year to $11,115 by bagging first money of $1,250 in the Zaharias. She is almost $4,000 ahead of second place Marilynn Smith.

The tour freshman, little Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., finished second with a 73 for 214.

Pastrano Is Light Heavy Champ

Johnson's Manager Feels His Boy Got Bum Decision

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Hollering he was robbed, Pat Olivieri manager of Harold Johnson, today demanded a rematch for his dethroned light heavyweight champion with Willie Pastrano.

Pastrano, a 1-to-5 underdog, won the championship Saturday night in the boxing upset of the year with a split 15-round decision over Johnson. The fight was nationally televised from the Las Vegas Convention Center.

"I'm not saying that the underworld dictated the decision," said the silver-haired Olivieri. "But the betting was 5-1 and 6-1 for my boy and they let the underdog win. What do you think?"

There was no verbal or written rematch agreement. Pastrano's manager, Angelo Dundee, said. Olivieri said he would ask Emile Bruneau, chairman of the World Boxing Association championship committee, to give Johnson a rematch with 90 days.

Referee Jimmy Olivas scored the fight 69-68 and judge Harry Kraufe 69-67, both for Pastrano. Judge John Romero had it 69-68 for Johnson. The Associated Press had it 70-69 for Pastrano.

It was 7-5 that Pastrano wouldn't last the route against the 34-year-old champion from Philadelphia who had not been whipped in almost eight years.

But Pastrano outboxed and outfoxed Johnson in a fight that was far better than many anticipated.

There were no knockdowns, but Johnson nailed Willie with right smashes in the fifth and 13th rounds that made his knees sag.

Johnson received $37,000 and Pastrano $21,250, the largest purse of his 13-year career.

Pastrano weighed 174, Johnson 173½.

500 Driver Dies On Ohio Speedway

NEW BREMEN, Ohio (AP) — Automobile racing was in Allen Crowe's blood. He proved that by coming back from four major crashes in little more than a year. The fifth, at New Bremen Speedway on Sunday, killed him.

Just three days earlier, Crowe went after thousands of dollars in prize money before upward of 200,000 spectators at the Indianapolis 500-mile Memorial Day classic. His car hit a well on the 48th lap, forcing him out for a 27th place finish worth $5,700. But he wasn't injured badly.

Here, Crowe was going for relative "peanuts" with a crowd of 5,217 looking on at a half-mile dirt track. His sprint car struck a wall on the 11th lap of the 30-lap feature. It flipped over, skidded upside down, then righted itself with Crowe unconscious.

The 34-year-old Springfield, Ill., competitor was already badly injured, his chest crushed. But two of his rivals couldn't dodge his disabled car and plowed into it, giving Crowe another severe jolt. Two other cars nicked the pileup.

None of the other drivers was injured, although the car of Chuck Engel of Reynoldsburg, Ohio, flipped over.

Crowe's car caught fire but two drivers not competing in the feature dashed out and pulled him away. Shortly afterward, the flames shot high.

Crowe was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton. He never regained consciousness and died a couple of hours later.

He leaves a widow and three youngsters.

Another fellow who had tough luck Thursday at Indianapolis, Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz. won Sunday's U.S. Automobile Club event. He is the season leader in USAC point standings for sprint races. Crowe had been No. 2 in the standings.

McCluskey was running third at Indianapolis when he spun out on winner Parnelli Jones' final lap. He had to settle for 15th place.

Jones withdrew his scheduled entry here Sunday because of commitments following his Indianapolis victory. Chuck Hulse of Downey, Calif., eighth in the 500, and Don Branson of Champaign, Ill., fifth in the big one, finished 2-3 behind McCluskey Sunday.

ALLEN CROWE
500 Driver Dies In Ohio.

Crowe's death was the second among USAC drivers this year. Last year there were seven—including one at New Bremen Speedway when Don Davis, 29, of Tucson, Ariz., was injured fatally Aug. 5.

Laughlin Wins Sunday's Event At Country Club

Jim Laughlin scored 28 points to win Sunday's par - birdie - eagle contest and T. H. Kashuba and Bob Gilmore tied for honors in Saturday's selective nine hole play at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Runnerup to Laughlin Sunday was Bill Hocking Jr. with 20 points while Bob Patterson had 23 and Everson Hall and Kahuba 22 each. The second division went to Grant Stover with 20 points.

Dr. R. J. Kinsey and Bill Pickin tied for second place with 20 each in Saturday's event while Don E. Smith and J. W. Batey had 31 apiece.

The Second division went to Dr. A. A. Turner with 28. Lawton Howell's 29 was second and W.A. Porter finished with 32.

Ladies will begin qualifying for the July Cup Tuesday through June 19.

New Record For Winner In 600 Race

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A blown tire and an empty gas tank figured in the last minute heroics here Sunday as Fred Lorenzen won the World 600 stock car race at a record 132.417 miles per hour.

Lorenzen, 29-year-old ex-carpenter from Elmhurst, Ill., came home free when Junior Johnson, the leader and pace-setter, blew a tire with slightly over three laps to go.

With Johnson's Chevrolet in the pits for a new tire and the rest of the field strung out at least a full lap behind, Lorenzen breezed into Lap No. 398 of the 400-lap race. But the handsome, curly-haired veteran found himself in trouble, too. His fuel gauge registered empty.

"I wiggled her back and fourth to slosh more gas into the line," said the happy Lorenzen later. "I managed to make lap No. 399 with power, but I simply threw her out of gear and coasted the last lap."

The victory over the 1½ mile high-banked Charlotte Motor Speedway, which packed an estimated 60,000 into its sunlit environs, was worth $27,780 to the Ford-driving Lorenzen.

BASEBALL HEROES

BATTING — Willie Mays, Giants, hit three home runs and drove in four runs in San Francisco's 6-4 victory over St. Louis.

PITCHING — Jack Kralick and Sam McDowell, Indians, pair of Cleveland southpaws cooled off hot Yankees in doubleheader sweep 5-0, 7-2. Kralcik posted two-hitter in opener and McDowell spaced nine hits in second.

Berra Won't Be Pitching Against Mets

NEW YORK (AP) — There is absolutely no truth to the report that Yogi Berra is going to pitch for the New York Yankees tonight in their Goliath-David match with the New York Mets for charity.

Ralph Houk gave the word in Cleveland, before his Yanks took it on the chin twice from the Indians, that Marshall Bridges from his bullpen crew would work for the Yanks. With the double loss in Cleveland and Baltimore next on the schedule Tuesday, the Yanks are in a press for pitching. The Mets also will reach into their bullpen, starting left-handed reliever Ken MacKenzie.

The return of Casey Stengel to Yankee Stadium for the first time since he was turned out of a job as too old after losing the 1960 World Series, was enough to insure a bumper turnout of "I Hate The Yankees" fans.

Former All-American For Yale Dies At 63

PLEASANTVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—Century Milstead, all-America tackle on Yale's 1923 unbeaten and untied football team, died Sunday, apparently the victim of a coronary attack. He was 63.

Milstead, given his first name because he was born on the first day of 20th century, Jan. 1, 1900, was found by his wife at about 4 a.m. in the basement workshop of his home.

After being named to the All-America by the late Walter Camp, Milstead played professional football with the New York Giants and then returned to Yale as an assistant coach for several years.

Wellsville Drops 3rd Tri-County Tilt, 3-2

A base on balls forced in the winning run in the eighth inning as Wellsville dropped a tough 3-2 decision at Sebring Sunday in a Tri-County League contest.

The loss left Wellsville with a 5-3 record.

John Martin staked Wellsville to a 2-1 lead in the third inning when he belted a home run with a teammate on base.

Sebring came back to tie the game a 2-2 in the sixth inning then scored the winning marker in the eighth.

Jack Call was the losing hurler going all the way for Wellsville while S. Wagner was the winner. Both teams collected seven hits with Martin having two safeties for Wellsville.

Wellsville will play host to Carrollton Wednesday.

In other games, Jewett downed Carrollton, 13-10, Salineville blanked Irondale, 5-0 and Kilgore nipped Bergholz, 7-6, in 10 innings.

4 Countries Advance In Cup Matches

By The Associated Press

Soviet Russia, Spain, Great Britain and Yugoslavia have advanced through another round of the European Zone Davis Cup tennis eliminations and France is expected to join the group today.

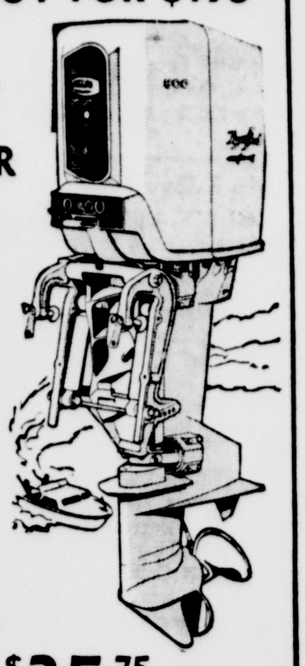

France meets Brazil in the final two singles matches after taking a 2-1 lead in their series with a doubles victory.

The Spaniards eliminated Italy Sunday, taking a clinching 3-1 lead in the best-of-5 series at Barcelona when Manuel Santana downed veteran Italian ace Fausto Gardini 6-1, 6-1, 10-8. In the fifth match, Juan Couder of Spain was one game away from whipping Nicola Pietrangeli of Italy when darkness caused a suspension of play. Plans were to complete the match today.

In the other matches, Russia turned back Chile 4-1 and set up a quarter-final test with Great Britain, a 5-0 winner over Belgium at Brussels; and Yugoslavia completed a 5-0 rout of Austria at Zagreb.

Trading Seen As NHL Meet Opens Today

MONTREAL (AP)—The trading block goes into operation today as National Hockey League clubs gather for their three-day annual meeting and there's a suspicion that bidding may be brisk.

Just what deals actually may be carried out is something else. But it is axiomatic that clubs would rather swap players than see their talent snatched up in the draft. The $20,000 draft price is a secondary consideration.

It used to be that the Montreal Canadiens, well loaded, were fair game for the five other clubs. Now the sagging Canadiens are casting about for help themselves.

Defenseman Tom Johnson and center Phil Goyette long have been reported as bait for a deal. So also has Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, the burly right-winger. Goalie Jacques Plante is another possibility for the open market.

Each club can put 18 players, plus two goalies, on its protected list against the draft.

If no deal is made for slipping veterans the club will likely be forced to put them on the protected list.

The NHL's intra-draft session won't be reached until Wednesday preceded by the draft from the minors Tuesday.

Lawyers Stretch Lead With 9-5 Colt Victory

The Lawyers stretched their lead in the Colt League Sunday with a 9-5 victory over the Riverview Florists and the Dentists topped Central Service, 6-3.

Bill Smith, hurled a five-hitter as his mates backed him with a nine-hit attack. The Lawyers put the finishing touches to Riverview with a four-run outburst in the fifth inning. Sayre was the loser.

Woods, Stewart and Lawrence all collected two hits for the Lawyers while Huddleston had two safeties for the losers.

The Dentists made the most of five hits and came up with a three-run fifth inning to turn back Central Service.

Bob Maltarich was the winning hurler spacing four hits including a triple by Nick Marchbanks. Winters was the losing pitcher.

Jeff MacLean's two hits paced the Dentists while Johnson banged out a double.

Finsterwald, Boros Enter Final '500' Round Tied

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Sponsors who dug up $55,000 in guarantees for the Speedway Festival golf tournament were complacent today about the frightful beating par was taking on their sycamore-studded public course.

They were outspokenly unhappy because such pro circuit stars as Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Gene Littler weren't on hand to challenge Dow Finsterwald and Julius Boros, who were tied for the lead going into today's final round with 11-under-par 200s.

Jim Ferrier, who set a tourney and course record of 61 Sunday, and Tommy Aaron, who lost a playoff to Tony Lema in the Memphis Open last week, were a stroke off the pace at 201.

John David, the tourney chairman, former Purdue golf captain and many times Indiana amateur champion, complained:

"We could have had as good a field for a $30,000 purse. So many name players staying away is unfair to the sponsors."

Ferrier's 31-30—61 Sunday against par 35-36—71 was the lowest on the 1963 PGA tour and only one stroke off the PGA record of 60.

Finsterwald, who hasn't won a tour tournament since the 1960 New Orleans Open, put together an eagle, six birdies and a bogey in a 64 round to go with a pair of 68s the first two days.

Fred Hawkins shot a 69 for the second straight day after an opening 64 and was only 2 strokes off the pace. Lema and Bob Duden had 203s and 15 players had 206 or better.

Actor Rod Taylor, 33, and New York model Mary Hilem have postponed their honeymoon until completion of Taylor's current film.

The Australian-born actor and Miss Hilem, 25, were married Saturday night at the Westwood Community Methodist Church, Hollywood's top stars present. Among the guests were John Wayne, Louis Jourdan, Robert Cummings, Jane Fonda, Marilyn Maxwell and director Vincente Minnelli.

It was the second marriage for Taylor and the first for the bride.

Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, associate director of the Peace Corps, says the time for smashing the color barrier is here and "neither dogs nor water hoses can hold it back."

Proctor, of Washington, D.C., made the statement Sunday before an audience of 3,000 at commencement exercises at Kentucky State College, a predominantly Negro school at Frankfort.

Marilyn Monroe was remembered on her birthday.

More than a dozen floral clusters and cards were placed in front of her crypt in Westwood Memorial Park in Hollywood Saturday, the 37th anniversary of her birth.

She died of an overdose of sleeping pills last August.

New Officers Named By Grocery Concern

MASSILLON, Ohio — R. H. Jentes has been elected president and general manager of the McLain Grocery Co. which services 140 IGA food markets in a 23-county area.

Other officers named are C. L. Singhass, vice president; E. T. Vogt, secretary; W. S. Wenger, treasurer; A. F. Meismer, R. W. McLain and J. M. Hess, directors.

Prince Philip Bumped Off Pony During Polo

WINDSOR, England (AP)—Prince Philip, husband of Queen Elizabeth II, was bumped from his pony during a polo match in Windsor Great Park Sunday, a few minutes after the queen had left for Windsor Castle. He fell beneath the flying hooves of three other ponies, but managed to finish that period of the game.

The prince drove to a hospital, but left after 20 minutes. A spokesman said he was not injured seriously.

Soldier Attacked By 3 On Dresden

A 17-year-old Army private on furlough was injured when attacked by three unidentified men in a strange encounter on Dresden Ave. Sunday at 1:52 a. m., police reported.

Ronny Egnor, 931 Dresden Ave., was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the right cheek and returned Sunday for X-rays for his jaw.

Egnor told police he had been on a double date with a friend at a Chester area drive-in theater. Upon returning to East Liverpool, he alighted from the friend's car on Dresden Ave., he related.

Egnor said as he walked toward his home, three unidentified men passed in an auto and one of them shouted something about a "dirty doggie," service slang for an Army man. When he asked what the man had said, the three got out of the car and beat him, he told police.

Police were unable to locate the three men, but the investigation is continuing.

Woodeschick Is New Relief Star For Houston

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Just a few months ago Houston southpaw Hal Woodeshick was ready to quit baseball. Now he ranks as one of the game's top relief specialists.

"Everything is going my way now," Woodeshick said happily after a brilliant six-inning relief job Sunday as the Colts defeated the Milwaukee Braves 3-1 in a 17-inning marathon.

Woodeshick allowed only two hits, one a bunt single, in earning his fourth victory in five decisions and lowering his earned run average to a remarkable 0.84 for 42 2-3 innings.

An American League castoff after trials with Detroit, Cleveland and Washington, Woodeshick was picked up by Houston last year but was shipped to Oklahoma City in the American Association after winning only five games and losing 16 for the Colts.

"I was disappointed and ready to quit when they put me on the Oklahoma City roster," Woodeshick said. "I lacked one year to be eligible for the pension plan and had decided to say the heck with it.

"However, my boss, J. L. Baldwin, talked me into giving baseball one more shot."

Despite Woodeshick's fine pitching performances, including a relief stint as long as 7 2-3 innings, Houston Manager Harry Craft plans to keep him in the bullpen.

3 Die In Dispute About Purchase Of Dayton Grill

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Three persons are dead after a dispute over a business deal apparently touched off a triple shooting at nearby Washington Twp.

Sheriff's deputies said that Michael Mercs, 61, of Dayton apparently fatally shot Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miklos on Sunday, then turned a pistol on himself. Mrs. Miklos was killed outright, and her husband and Mercs died early today at Miami Valley Hospital.

Miklos, 50, and his wife, Barbara, 68, immigrated from Hungary and became operators of the Paradise Club and the Orange Grill in Dayton.

Chief deputy Tom Wilson of the sheriff's office said that Mercs had been negotiating to buy the Orange Grill, but a disagreement arose and the Mikloses turned the matter over to an attorney.

Chief investigator Harry Bloomer said that Miklos, shot in the head, was found in his dining room. Mrs. Miklos, he related, staggered into the bedroom of her husband's parents and collapsed.

When officers arrived, they found Mercs in the Miklos garage. He had been shot in the head with a .25 - caliber automatic.

Guardrail Hit In City Crash

A 46-year-old woman driver escaped unhurt when her car went off Dresden Ave. at Trentvale St. Saturday at 10:12 p. m. and struck a guardrail, officers reported.

The mishap damaged the left front of a 1963 four-door sedan operated by Freda M. Ward of Beloit, Ill., who was northbound about 35 miles an hour when she missed the curve, officers said. The collision damaged the city-owned fence, police reported.

Parked autos were damaged in two week-end hit-skip crashes, officers reported.

Carl S. Pearson, 1651 Park Ave., told police the rear of his 1953 model auto was damaged when struck by an unknown vehicle sometime between 6:15 p. m. Saturday and 3:30 a. m. Sunday while parked on Park Ave. about 50 feet north of Line Alley.

A similar collision was reported Saturday at 7:38 p. m. by James Fersch, 744 Cadmus St.

Fersch told police the left side of his 1963 model four-door sedan was struck while parked in front of his home.

Trading Seen As NHL Meet Opens Today

MONTREAL (AP)—The trading block goes into operation today as National Hockey League clubs gather for their three-day annual meeting and there's a suspicion that bidding may be brisk.

Just what deals actually may be carried out is something else. But it is axiomatic that clubs would rather swap players than see their talent snatched up in the draft. The $20,000 draft price is a secondary consideration.

It used to be that the Montreal Canadiens, well loaded, were fair game for the five other clubs. Now the sagging Canadiens are casting about for help themselves.

Defenseman Tom Johnson and center Phil Goyette long have been reported as bait for a deal. So also has Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, the burly right-winger. Goalie Jacques Plante is another possibility for the open market.

Each club can put 18 players, plus two goalies, on its protected list against the draft.

If no deal is made for slipping veterans the club will likely be forced to put them on the protected list.

The NHL's intra-draft session won't be reached until Wednesday preceded by the draft from the minors Tuesday.

Lawyers Stretch Lead With 9-5 Colt Victory

The Lawyers stretched their lead in the Colt League Sunday with a 9-5 victory over the Riverview Florists and the Dentists topped Central Service, 6-3.

Bill Smith, hurled a five-hitter as his mates backed him with a nine-hit attack. The Lawyers put the finishing touches to Riverview with a four-run outburst in the fifth inning. Sayre was the loser.

Woods, Stewart and Lawrence all collected two hits for the Lawyers while Huddleston had two safeties for the losers.

The Dentists made the most of five hits and came up with a three-run fifth inning to turn back Central Service.

Bob Maltarich was the winning hurler spacing four hits including a triple by Nick Marchbanks. Winters was the losing pitcher.

Jeff MacLean's two hits paced the Dentists while Johnson banged out a double.

Finsterwald, Boros Enter Final '500' Round Tied

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Sponsors who dug up $55,000 in guarantees for the Speedway Festival golf tournament were complacent today about the frightful beating par was taking on their sycamore-studded public course.

They were outspokenly unhappy because such pro circuit stars as Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Gene Littler weren't on hand to challenge Dow Finsterwald and Julius Boros, who were tied for the lead going into today's final round with 11-under-par 200s.

Jim Ferrier, who set a tourney and course record of 61 Sunday, and Tommy Aaron, who lost a playoff to Tony Lema in the Memphis Open last week, were a stroke off the pace at 201.

John David, the tourney chairman, former Purdue golf captain and many times Indiana amateur champion, complained:

"We could have had as good a field for a $30,000 purse. So many name players staying away is unfair to the sponsors."

Ferrier's 31-30—61 Sunday against par 35-36—71 was the lowest on the 1963 PGA tour and only one stroke off the PGA record of 60.

Finsterwald, who hasn't won a tour tournament since the 1960 New Orleans Open, put together an eagle, six birdies and a bogey in a 64 round to go with a pair of 68s the first two days.

Fred Hawkins shot a 69 for the second straight day after an opening 64 and was only 2 strokes off the pace. Lema and Bob Duden had 203s and 15 players had 206 or better.

Actor Rod Taylor, 33, and New York model Mary Hilem have postponed their honeymoon until completion of Taylor's current film.

The Australian-born actor and Miss Hilem, 25, were married Saturday night at the Westwood Community Methodist Church, Hollywood's top stars present. Among the guests were John Wayne, Louis Jourdan, Robert Cummings, Jane Fonda, Marilyn Maxwell and director Vincente Minnelli.

It was the second marriage for Taylor and the first for the bride.

Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, associate director of the Peace Corps, says the time for smashing the color barrier is here and "neither dogs nor water hoses can hold it back."

Proctor, of Washington, D.C., made the statement Sunday before an audience of 3,000 at commencement exercises at Kentucky State College, a predominantly Negro school at Frankfort.

Marilyn Monroe was remembered on her birthday.

More than a dozen floral clusters and cards were placed in front of her crypt in Westwood Memorial Park in Hollywood Saturday, the 37th anniversary of her birth.

She died of an overdose of sleeping pills last August.

New Officers Named By Grocery Concern

MASSILLON, Ohio — R. H. Jentes has been elected president and general manager of the McLain Grocery Co. which services 140 IGA food markets in a 23-county area.

Other officers named are C. L. Singhass, vice president; E. T. Vogt, secretary; W. S. Wenger, treasurer; A. F. Meismer, R. W. McLain and J. M. Hess, directors.

Prince Philip Bumped Off Pony During Polo

WINDSOR, England (AP)—Prince Philip, husband of Queen Elizabeth II, was bumped from his pony during a polo match in Windsor Great Park Sunday, a few minutes after the queen had left for Windsor Castle. He fell beneath the flying hooves of three other ponies, but managed to finish that period of the game.

The prince drove to a hospital, but left after 20 minutes. A spokesman said he was not injured seriously.

Soldier Attacked By 3 On Dresden

A 17-year-old Army private on furlough was injured when attacked by three unidentified men in a strange encounter on Dresden Ave. Sunday at 1:52 a. m., police reported.

Ronny Egnor, 931 Dresden Ave., was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the right cheek and returned Sunday for X-rays for his jaw.

Egnor told police he had been on a double date with a friend at a Chester area drive-in theater. Upon returning to East Liverpool, he alighted from the friend's car on Dresden Ave., he related.

Egnor said as he walked toward his home, three unidentified men passed in an auto and one of them shouted something about a "dirty doggie," service slang for an Army man. When he asked what the man had said, the three got out of the car and beat him, he told police.

Police were unable to locate the three men, but the investigation is continuing.

Connor's Loft Wins 300-Mile Pigeon Race

Pat Connor's loft took first place in the East Liverpool Racing Pigeon Club's 300-mile race from Greenfield, Ind., Sunday.

The winning time was 7 hours and 29 seconds. Victor Giovenco's bird was second in 7 hours, 4 minutes and 12 seconds and Giovenco's entry took third.

Next Sunday's race will be a 400-mile event from Terre Haute, Ind.

Woodeschick Is New Relief Star For Houston

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Just a few months ago Houston southpaw Hal Woodeshick was ready to quit baseball. Now he ranks as one of the game's top relief specialists.

"Everything is going my way now," Woodeshick said happily after a brilliant six-inning relief job Sunday as the Colts defeated the Milwaukee Braves 3-1 in a 17-inning marathon.

Woodeshick allowed only two hits, one a bunt single, in earning his fourth victory in five decisions and lowering his earned run average to a remarkable 0.84 for 42 2-3 innings.

An American League castoff after trials with Detroit, Cleveland and Washington, Woodeshick was picked up by Houston last year but was shipped to Oklahoma City in the American Association after winning only five games and losing 16 for the Colts.

"I was disappointed and ready to quit when they put me on the Oklahoma City roster," Woodeshick said. "I lacked one year to be eligible for the pension plan and had decided to say the heck with it.

"However, my boss, J. L. Baldwin, talked me into giving baseball one more shot."

Despite Woodeshick's fine pitching performances, including a relief stint as long as 7 2-3 innings, Houston Manager Harry Craft plans to keep him in the bullpen.

3 Die In Dispute About Purchase Of Dayton Grill

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Three persons are dead after a dispute over a business deal apparently touched off a triple shooting at nearby Washington Twp.

Sheriff's deputies said that Michael Mercs, 61, of Dayton apparently fatally shot Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miklos on Sunday, then turned a pistol on himself. Mrs. Miklos was killed outright, and her husband and Mercs died early today at Miami Valley Hospital.

Miklos, 50, and his wife, Barbara, 68, immigrated from Hungary and became operators of the Paradise Club and the Orange Grill in Dayton.

Chief deputy Tom Wilson of the sheriff's office said that Mercs had been negotiating to buy the Orange Grill, but a disagreement arose and the Mikloses turned the matter over to an attorney.

Chief investigator Harry Bloomer said that Miklos, shot in the head, was found in his dining room. Mrs. Miklos, he related, staggered into the bedroom of her husband's parents and collapsed.

When officers arrived, they found Mercs in the Miklos garage. He had been shot in the head with a .25 - caliber automatic.

Youth Still 'Critical'

Guardrail Hit In City Crash

A 46-year-old woman driver escaped unhurt when her car went off Dresden Ave. at Trentvale St. Saturday at 10:12 p. m. and struck a guardrail, officers reported.

The mishap damaged the left front of a 1963 four-door sedan operated by Freda M. Ward of Beloit, Ill., who was northbound about 35 miles an hour when she missed the curve, officers said. The collision damaged the city-owned fence, police reported.

Parked autos were damaged in two week-end hit-skip crashes, officers reported.

Carl S. Pearson, 1651 Park Ave., told police the rear of his 1953 model auto was damaged when struck by an unknown vehicle sometime between 6:15 p. m. Saturday and 3:30 a. m. Sunday while parked on Park Ave. about 50 feet north of Line Alley.

A similar collision was reported Saturday at 7:38 p. m. by James Fersch, 744 Cadmus St.

Fersch told police the left side of his 1963 model four-door sedan was struck while parked in front of his home.

Burglary Trial Opens For Man At Wellsville

Testimony began this morning before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard in Lisbon in the burglary trial of John R. Reed, 32, of Wellsville, indicted by the April Grand Jury for allegedly entering the Super Foods store in Wellsville Jan. 27.

Reed and George W. Sims, 34, also of Wellsville, were indicted for the offense. Sims' trial is expected to begin after the Reed trial which is scheduled to be completed sometime Tuesday.

The jury is: Dan McDonald, Marcella Daugherty, Alice Woolam, Mary Mathias, Pearl Simbala and Sarah Patterson, East Liverpool; Jane Pemberton, Salem; Richard Cross and Lenore B. Hoffman, Columbiana; Carl Bacon, Rogers; Roy Dunn, Negley and Cora Keck, New Waterford. Veda Cope of Rogers is alternate.

Even though Washington, D.C. has about 500 statues and memorials in its parks and boulevards, only six of them are of U.S. Presidents. These are of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Buchanan, Lincoln, and Grant.

Board Clears Tree Harvest

The Beaver Local Board of Education acted at a special meeting Saturday night to allow a Cannons Mill lumber firm to harvest 63-acres of woodland around the high school plant near Williamsport.

The proposal of the Young & Sons Hardwood Lumber Co. to harvest timber on the school property had been under study by the Board for a few weeks.

The contract calls for the school district to be paid $13 per 1,000 square feet of timber cut from the tract.

With the 63 acres containing an estimated 400,000 to 500,000 board feet of timber, the school may realize $5,400 from the project for educational purposes.

The plan calls for Young & Sons to harvest trees of all varieties 14 inches or more in diameter, except cherry. Cutting of cherry trees will be limited to those 12 inches or more in diameter.

Three of the five-member Board attended the session in the high school. They have been advised by the Soil Conservation Service that it would be practical to thin out the forest.

Driver's Case Slated For Damaging Meter

Roy B. Monroe, 603 E. 3rd St., is slated to receive a hearing today before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville on a charge of destruction of city property.

He was cited May 16 after his car knocked over a parking meter.

Tracy Filler of Clarksburg, W. Va., is to receive a hearing on a charge of disorderly conduct by intoxication. He was picked up Saturday night.

Hayward Tolley of Toronto R. D. 1 was arrested Sunday at 3:30 a. m. for speeding, police said. He will receive a hearing Saturday.

Roger Hill of Lisbon R. D. 5 was cited Saturday evening for crashing a traffic light at 9th and Main Sts. He will get a hearing Tuesday.

Chester Boy Injured Crawling Under Auto

A Chester child escaped serious injury Saturday evening when he crawled beneath a car to retrieve a ball and the driver started backing the auto.

Ricky Anderson, 5, son of Jack Anderson, 601 Florida Ave., was treated at City Hospital at 7:30 p. m. for abrasions of the elbow and abrasions and contusions of the right forehead.

Witnesses said the child was chasing a ball which rolled beneath a parked car at 6th St. and Florida Ave. After the child got underneath, the driver, Glenn Arnett of East Liverpool, got into the vehicle and started to back it.

Witnesses shouted and the driver stopped. A Hancock County sheriff's deputy was at the scene at the time.

Chester's Councilmen To Pick Poll Workers

Poll workers for the special election on the new "head tax" June 11 will be named by Chester Council at its regular meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Mayor Harry Abrams will preside. The water and sewer committee will confer with representatives of the Robinson Pipe Cleaning Co. of Canonsburg, Pa., to discuss the possibility of cleaning an 8-inch water line leading to the Taylor, Smith and Taylor Co. Wayne Hutton is chairman of the committee.

$17,065,883 Set For 'Local Debt'

Local government debt in Columbiana County at the beginning of 1963 was $17,065,883, according to a report from the office of State Auditor Roger W. Tracy at Columbus.

This included $5,833,126 in city debt; $5,050,000 in city school district debt; $2,573,090 in local school district debt; $2,185,514 in exempted village school debt; $167,000 in county debt; $1,226,621 in village debt, and $30,529 in township debt.

The total statewide increased 3.1 per cent over the previous year.

Tracy also announced Columbiana County is to receive $3,256,-64 for distribution of poor relief checks as reimbursement for March expenditures.

East Liverpool will receive $2,-079.79 and Wellsville $878.11.

Band At Beaver Local Will Play For Festival

The Beaver Local Junior High School Band has been asked to participate in a short concert at a festival Thursday night at the high school, Robert Sprague, director, said.

Band members are to report to the high school at 7 in uniform. Those who do not have uniforms also should attend, Sprague said. Any Junior High band member who cannot attend must notify Sprague by postcard. His address is Salem R. D. 5. The cards are to be mailed by Tuesday, he said.

Meanwhile, summer music lessons began today at the junior high school. Fourth grade students from Calcutta, Rogers, Elkton and West Point and Junior High students taking lessons are to receive cards in the mail designating the time and day of their lessons. The half-hour lessons will continue for eight weeks, with the last lessons to be during the final week of July.

To distinguish between a crow and a raven requires close examination. The raven is larger and the feathers on its throat are longer, narrower, and more pointed than those on the crow which are short and rounded.

Jobs Cleared For 2 Streets

Approval to begin work on two street projects was received from the county engineer by the Liverpool Township trustees at a meeting Saturday morning at City Hall.

Blacktop will be applied to Imperial Dr. and to the north end of Harding Ave. to St. Clair Township. The trustees also approved "chip" work on roads in Hoffman Addition and 3rd Ave., LaCroft.

A complaint was received of an open well on the hillside above Price St. It apparently has been abandoned. Police constables were notified to locate the owner and have him cover the well.

Word was received from the Motorola Corp. of Youngstown that radio equipment has been ordered for the East and West fire departments. The firm was awarded a contract at the last meeting.

Application also has been made for a channel and permit to operate. It will take 30 to 45 days for the station to be put into operation.

The trustees and Simon Hall, clerk, plan to attend the state convention June 13-15 at Akron.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, June 12, at Hall's home in Dixonville to clear away any necessary business before the convention.

Burglary Trial Opens For Man At Wellsville

Testimony began this morning before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard in Lisbon in the burglary trial of John R. Reed, 32, of Wellsville, indicted by the April Grand Jury for allegedly entering the Super Foods store in Wellsville Jan. 27.

Reed and George W. Sims, 34, also of Wellsville, were indicted for the offense. Sims' trial is expected to begin after the Reed trial which is scheduled to be completed sometime Tuesday.

The jury is: Dan McDonald, Marcella Daugherty, Alice Woolam, Mary Mathias, Pearl Simbala and Sarah Patterson, East Liverpool; Jane Pemberton, Salem; Richard Cross and Lenore B. Hoffman, Columbiana; Carl Bacon, Rogers; Roy Dunn, Negley and Cora Keck, New Waterford. Veda Cope of Rogers is alternate.

Even though Washington, D.C. has about 500 statues and memorials in its parks and boulevards, only six of them are of U.S. Presidents. These are of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Buchanan, Lincoln, and Grant.

Board Clears Tree Harvest

The Beaver Local Board of Education acted at a special meeting Saturday night to allow a Cannons Mill lumber firm to harvest 63-acres of woodland around the high school plant near Williamsport.

The proposal of the Young & Sons Hardwood Lumber Co. to harvest timber on the school property had been under study by the Board for a few weeks.

The contract calls for the school district to be paid $13 per 1,000 square feet of timber cut from the tract.

With the 63 acres containing an estimated 400,000 to 500,000 board feet of timber, the school may realize $5,400 from the project for educational purposes.

The plan calls for Young & Sons to harvest trees of all varieties 14 inches or more in diameter, except cherry. Cutting of cherry trees will be limited to those 12 inches or more in diameter.

Three of the five-member Board attended the session in the high school. They have been advised by the Soil Conservation Service that it would be practical to thin out the forest.

Driver's Case Slated For Damaging Meter

Roy B. Monroe, 603 E. 3rd St., is slated to receive a hearing today before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville on a charge of destruction of city property.

He was cited May 16 after his car knocked over a parking meter.

Tracy Filler of Clarksburg, W. Va., is to receive a hearing on a charge of disorderly conduct by intoxication. He was picked up Saturday night.

Hayward Tolley of Toronto R. D. 1 was arrested Sunday at 3:30 a. m. for speeding, police said. He will receive a hearing Saturday.

Roger Hill of Lisbon R. D. 5 was cited Saturday evening for crashing a traffic light at 9th and Main Sts. He will get a hearing Tuesday.

Chester Boy Injured Crawling Under Auto

A Chester child escaped serious injury Saturday evening when he crawled beneath a car to retrieve a ball and the driver started backing the auto.

Ricky Anderson, 5, son of Jack Anderson, 601 Florida Ave., was treated at City Hospital at 7:30 p. m. for abrasions of the elbow and abrasions and contusions of the right forehead.

Witnesses said the child was chasing a ball which rolled beneath a parked car at 6th St. and Florida Ave. After the child got underneath, the driver, Glenn Arnett of East Liverpool, got into the vehicle and started to back it.

Witnesses shouted and the driver stopped. A Hancock County sheriff's deputy was at the scene at the time.

Chester's Councilmen To Pick Poll Workers

Poll workers for the special election on the new "head tax" June 11 will be named by Chester Council at its regular meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Mayor Harry Abrams will preside. The water and sewer committee will confer with representatives of the Robinson Pipe Cleaning Co. of Canonsburg, Pa., to discuss the possibility of cleaning an 8-inch water line leading to the Taylor, Smith and Taylor Co. Wayne Hutton is chairman of the committee.

$17,065,883 Set For 'Local Debt'

Local government debt in Columbiana County at the beginning of 1963 was $17,065,883, according to a report from the office of State Auditor Roger W. Tracy at Columbus.

This included $5,833,126 in city debt; $5,050,000 in city school district debt; $2,573,090 in local school district debt; $2,185,514 in exempted village school debt; $167,000 in county debt; $1,226,621 in village debt, and $30,529 in township debt.

The total statewide increased 3.1 per cent over the previous year.

Tracy also announced Columbiana County is to receive $3,256.64 for distribution of poor relief checks as reimbursement for March expenditures.

East Liverpool will receive $2,079.79 and Wellsville $878.11.

Band At Beaver Local Will Play For Festival

The Beaver Local Junior High School Band has been asked to participate in a short concert at a festival Thursday night at the high school, Robert Sprague, director, said.

Band members are to report to the high school at 7 in uniform. Those who do not have uniforms also should attend, Sprague said. Any Junior High band member who cannot attend must notify Sprague by postcard. His address is Salem R. D. 5. The cards are to be mailed by Tuesday, he said.

Meanwhile, summer music lessons began today at the junior high school. Fourth grade students from Calcutta, Rogers, Elkton and West Point and Junior High students taking lessons are to receive cards in the mail designating the time and day of their lessons. The half-hour lessons will continue for eight weeks, with the last lessons to be during the final week of July.

To distinguish between a crow and a raven requires close examination. The raven is larger and the feathers on its throat are longer, narrower, and more pointed than those on the crow which are short and rounded.

Jobs Cleared For 2 Streets

Approval to begin work on two street projects was received from the county engineer by the Liverpool Township trustees at a meeting Saturday morning at City Hall.

Blacktop will be applied to Imperial Dr. and to the north end of Harding Ave. to St. Clair Township. The trustees also approved "chip" work on roads in Hoffman Addition and 3rd Ave., LaCroft.

A complaint was received of an open well on the hillside above Price St. It apparently has been abandoned. Police constables were notified to locate the owner and have him cover the well.

Word was received from the Motorola Corp. of Youngstown that radio equipment has been ordered for the East and West fire departments. The firm was awarded a contract at the last meeting.

Application also has been made for a channel and permit to operate. It will take 30 to 45 days for the station to be put into operation.

The trustees and Simon Hall, clerk, plan to attend the state convention June 13-15 at Akron.

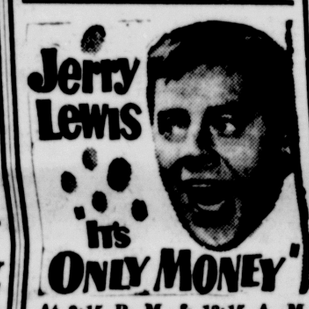

The next meeting will be Wednesday, June 12, at Hall's home in Dixonville to clear away any necessary business before the convention.

Junior Editors Quiz on MAPLE TREES

QUESTION: How is maple syrup made?

ANSWER: To the early settlers in the northeastern United States, the sugar maple was a very important tree because, together with honey from beehives, it gave them the only sweetening they could use the way we use sugar. When the sap began to run in the early spring, farmers drilled holes in the trees and put in hollow wooden spouts. As the sap ran out of these, it was collected in little buckets which hung below the spouts. A huge iron kettle was hauled out and a fire built around it. The sap was collected, dumped in the kettle, and as the water boiled away it left maple syrup behind. This was called "sugering off" and was a gay occasion; everyone would turn out to help, even the smallest children. A great treat for the children was to take plates of snow and pour the syrup on it. It would harden into delicious candy.

The lower picture shows sugaring off in our own time and you can see that the process is just about the same now as in earlier days. Making maple syrup and maple sugar is still an important business in Vermont, northern New York, Michigan, Wisconsin, Maryland and—on a larger scale—in Canada.

FOR YOU TO DO: As a change from other kinds of candy, try the ones made of maple sugar. They are delicious and are frequently molded into the shape of a maple leaf.

★ ★ ★

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1898, the ancient collier "Merrimac" was sunk in the channel at the harbor entrance of Santiago, Cuba, by Lt. Richmond Pearson Hobson and seven volunteers to prevent the Spanish fleet from escaping. Hobson and his crew missed their objective and the ship was sunk in deep water. They were taken prisoner but the sheer audacity of the exploit captured the imagination of the country.

On this date:

In 1621, the Dutch West India Company received a charter for New Netherlands—now New York.

In 1776, George Washington was authorized to hire 2,000 Indians for use in the Revolutionary War.

In 1808, the president of the Confederate States of America, Jefferson Davis, was born.

In 1937, the duke of Windsor married Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson in France.

In 1940, the evacuation of Dunkerque was completed.

Ten years ago: President Eisenhower told the nation that in the conflict with international communism "there is going to be no new Munich . . . and no risk of a general war."

Five years ago: President Eisenhower received a message from Premier Khrushchev urging an expansion of American-Russian trade.

One year ago: The worst single-plane disaster occurred when an Air France jet liner crashed at Paris and 130 persons were killed, among them 121 members of the Atlanta, Ga., Art Association.

At one time Haiti was the most productive of New World colonies, supplying Europe with all its sugar and France with half its revenue.

The giant bluefin, which can weigh up to 1,500 pounds, is the best-known among tuna. Others are albacore, yellowfin and skipjack, or striped, tuna.
